ADAMS CLOSING HIS DEFENSE.

Gubernatorial Contest in Colorado Nearing Conclusion.

Denver, Feb. 15.—Governor Alva Adams has closed his defense in the contest for the office of governor, and the contest, Former Governor James H. Peabody, will at once begin the presentation of evidence in rebuttal, for which five days are allowed under the rules governing the contest. The legislative committee hearing the contest is required to report its findings to the legislature March 1, and on March 2, the contest will be decided.

Three experts during the day reported on fifteen precincts in Huerfano county. They testified that 1,088 Republican and 162 Democratic ballots out of a total of 2,607 votes were written by two or three persons. Peabody received 1,928 and Adams 628 votes in these precincts. Should these precincts be thrown out, Peabody would lose 1,300 votes. With the same action taken in regard to the Las Animas county boxes, which the Democratic experts examined, Peabody would lose a total of 1,929 votes. Should the assembly agree to throw out all the precincts in which all the experts, both Republican and Democratic, discovered evidence of fraud, Governor Adams would retain his seat by a plurality of 909 votes.

NO CHANGE IN THE PROGRAMME.

Sailing of Russian Third Pacific Squadron Not Postponed.

St. Petersburg, Feb. 15.—The departure of Grand Duke Alexis and Vice Admiral Avellan for Libau to bid farewell to the Third Pacific Squadron on its departure for the far East does not indicate that there is any intention of postponing the sailing of the squadron, as has been rumored at Kiel. The admiral has mentioned no change in the programme.

Will Investigate Charges.

Denver, Feb. 15.—Under a resolution adopted by the Colorado house of representatives a committee of five was appointed by Speaker Dickson to investigate charges of corruption and intimidation made by Representatives J. F. Melton and Claude E. Street, Democrats, in connection with the eight-hour bill.

BILL PASSES SENATE

AGRICULTURAL APPROPRIATION MEASURE GOES THROUGH THE UPPER HOUSE.

AMENDED BY HANSBROUGH

NORTH DAKOTA SENATOR MAKES CHANGE IN BILL RESPECTING "DRAWBACKS."

Washington, Feb. 15.—The senate Tuesday passed the agricultural appropriation bill and began consideration of the bill making appropriations for the District of Columbia. The Hansbrough amendment to the agricultural bill relating to drawbacks on duties on wheat, was agreed to after an extended debate in which tariff considerations figured to a considerable extent. As adopted the amendment reads:

"That paragraph 234 of the act of July 24, 1897, entitled 'an act to provide revenue for the government and to encourage the industries of the United States,' shall not be held to be affected by the provisions of section 30 of said act."

Mr. Hansbrough spoke in support of the amendment, going minutely into the legislation and the decision of the attorney general, which, in his view, made necessary the amendment.

Mr. Hansbrough contended that the decision allowing a drawback on imported wheat was wrong, because the portion of flour made from such wheat could not be distinguished from that made of the domestic product, as, he argued, was necessary under the drawback provisions. He said the opinion would be far-reaching, extending to all articles used in manufacture.

"We hear much about the tariff revision," Mr. Hansbrough remarked, "but if the practice of the treasury department in accordance with this decision is to go on such revision will be unnecessary because the treasury department will make its own revision."

Coming to the specific matter in question he said that the price paid for imported wheat would fix the price of the entire wheat product of the United States.

Increased the Price of Wheat.

Mr. Hansbrough said that the fact that the wheat grown in the United States was protected had the effect of making the price of wheat in this country worth from 17 to 20 cents per bushel more than Canadian wheat and he predicted that the practice in conformity with the recent decision would have the effect of lowering the price of American wheat while it increased the price of the Canadian article.

Mr. McCumber (N. D.) supported the Hansbrough amendment, saying the effect of the decision is to establish free trade and to bring the price of American wheat to the Canadian level.

Senator Hansbrough expresses confidence that the house conferees will accept his amendment. If so, Secretary Shaw's famous drawback order will become a dead letter.

Senator Hansbrough also introduced an amendment to the sundry civil bill against the drawback privilege for mixed wheat. In support of it he asked to have inserted in the Record a letter written by Representative Volstead, setting forth the alleged illegality of Secretary Shaw's regulations, and protesting in behalf of Northwestern wheat raisers, who, he contends, will be injured by competition with Canadian wheat milled for the export market.

The usual three hours was given to the trial of the impeachment charges against United States Judge Swayne. Monday the senate decided to take no testimony on the point of the inconvenience of the judge's residence outside his district, also the judge's statement to the house committee should not be used as evidence in the trial.

THROWING MONEY TO BIRDS.

State of Illinois Will Feed Them During Cold Weather.

Springfield, Ill., Feb. 15.—The state of Illinois is about to try an experiment that is almost literally "throwing money to the birds." At an expense of over $5,000 the game birds of Illinois are to be fed by the state during the continuance of the severe cold. Deputy game wardens will buy grain from the farmers and scatter the kernels where the quail and prairie chicken feed. The deputies are authorized to spend $50 in each county.

Pioneer Minnesota Jurist Dead.

Minneapolis, Feb. 15.—Judge Austin H. Young, one of the pioneer judges of Hennepin county, passed away at his home in this city after an illness of about one month. He was seventy-four years of age and had been a resident of Minneapolis since 1866.

BRITISH PARLIAMENT OPENED.

King Edward Delivers the Speech From the Throne.

London, Feb. 15.—The first day's proceedings in parliament left rather a decided impression in the lobbies that the government will manage to hold out till the end of the session. The government's legislative programme, which is devoted in the main to social reforms, will be fairly popular, whilst the avoidance of difficult questions like that of the redistribution of seats and Premier Balfour's firmness in thrusting aside the fiscal problem all will tend in the same direction. On the other hand, the Liberals appear to be as distant as ever from any approach to unanimity on the vexed question of the leadership. Sir Henry Campbell-Bannerman, Earl Spencer, Herbert Henry Asquith and Sir Henry Hartley Fowler all are spoken of as possible leaders of the next Liberal ministry, to say nothing of Lord Rosebery's even superior claim to that position. Could he be inclined to exert his undoubted influence. Everything will depend upon Mr. Balfour's success in holding his followers together and overcoming the apathy born of the knowledge that the whole country is looking for and expecting a general election.

King Edward opened parliament with all the historic pageantry that has marked the ceremony since his accession. He read the speech from the throne to the assembled lords and commons in the upper chamber. The document was commonplace.

Big Storm Brewing.

The position of Sir Anthony MacDonnell, under secretary for Ireland, in the Unionist councils, threatens to bring a storm about the government's head. MacDonnell is credited with being responsible for Secretary Wyndham's more liberal policy towards Ireland, and is accordingly hated by the Ulster section of the Irish Unionists, who, led by Sir Edward Carson, are doing their best to overthrow him.

At a meeting of the Irish Unionists during the day a resolution was adopted openly censuring Mr. Wyndham for "abdicating his position and responsibility in favor of a subordinate official with a policy of his own, directed to destroying the basis of Irish Unionism," and protesting against the government permitting such an abuse of power. It is believed that Premier Balfour hitherto has supported Secretary Wyndham and MacDonnell, but the matter appears to be assuming a serious phase, involving the defection of many Irish Unionists.

REPLIES TO HEARST

SULLIVAN OF MASSACHUSETTS ANSWERS CHARGES OF NEW YORK CONGRESSMAN.

Washington, Feb. 15.—The second chapter of the episode between Mr. Sullivan of Massachusetts and Mr. Hearst of New York, occurred in the house during the day when Mr. Sullivan again took the floor on a question of personal privilege and related the circumstances leading up to the indictment and conviction of his father and himself for manslaughter. In decided contrast with the remarks of Monday, when the two men heaped upon each other epithets and charges of a serious nature, Mr. Sullivan's latest statement was devoid of any outright attack upon his colleague and was a straight recitation of the occurrences referred to by Mr. Hearst Monday. Mr. Sullivan admitted the charge, but said that he himself had been only technically guilty and had been permitted to leave the court a free man, without serving a day's imprisonment or being subjected to a fine. His father had been imprisoned a year and a half, but on the introduction of new evidence, which presented a grave doubt of guilt, his father had been pardoned.

Mr. Sullivan's statement was listened to with marked attention and at its conclusion he was warmly applauded, many members leaving their seats and shaking his hand.

Mr. Hearst was not present during the time he spoke.

The balance of the day was devoted to consideration of the naval appropriation bill. Mr. Littlefield speaking at length regarding the necessity for keeping appropriations within the limits of the revenues of the country.

"BRIBERY" BILL DEFEATED.

Measure Suggested by Governor Folk Killed in Missouri Senate.

Jefferson City, Mo., Feb. 15.—By the narrow margin of three votes, the "bribery" bill introduced by Senator Dickinson at the suggestion of Governor Folk was defeated in the upper house of the legislature. Great interest centered on the fate of this measure.

The bill provided that witnesses who testify in bribery prosecutions be themselves exempt from prosecution. The opposition claimed that the bill upset the plan of criminal practice in the state.

MAIN EVENT OF VISIT

PRESIDENT ROOSEVELT DINES WITH HUNGARIANS IN A NEW YORK RESTAURANT.

GREAT PRECAUTIONS TAKEN

SECRET SERVICE MEN AND POLICEMEN CLOSELY GUARD CHIEF EXECUTIVE.

New York, Feb. 15.—After two days of receptions and dinners in New York city President Roosevelt left at night over the Pennsylvania railway for Washington. The events of the day included a reception at the University club and at night the event of his visit—the dinner given by the Hungarian Republican club at the restaurant "Little Hungary," on the East Side, where a president has never been before.

The fact that Mr. Roosevelt was to visit places where he has not been since he was governor of New York, and where no other president, while in office, had been, led to unusual police precautions, but nothing untoward happened.

The president left the Hungarian club dinner after making a brief speech in which he told of the duties of an American citizen as he saw them and was driven directly to the Desbrosses street station, accompanied by a squad of mounted police. When he reached the ferry house he alighted from his carriage, shook hands with the members of the mounted squad and then went to the men's cabin in the ferry boat.

The boat arrived in Jersey City at 11:50 and some minutes afterwards he boarded the train.

Great Precautions Taken.

From the time the president arrived on the East Side until his departure the greatest precautions were taken for his safety. Secret service men guarded his person and policemen in uniform and in plain clothes were stationed all about the restaurant and for blocks on each side, so that the crowds of East Side residents, who had gathered to see the chief executive of the nation, were not able to get within two or three blocks of him. When the president left the banquet room he was heartily cheered by people in the windows and doors of tenements nearby.

Mr. Roosevelt waved his hat in response as he entered his carriage and started for the ferry.

When the president drove up to "Little Hungary" he fulfilled a promise made to members of the Hungarian Republican club several years ago that he would be their guest, if their prediction came true and he ever went to the White House.

This concluding function of the president's two days' visit to New York was the most picturesque that he had attended.

In striking contrast to the wealth and fashion which surrounded him at the Lincoln dinner, were the surroundings amid which the president spoke in "Little Hungary."

Promptly at 8:30 the president left the reception room and escorted by Mr. Braun descended to the basement and past the little bar into the cafe. He stood for several minutes at his place at the center of the head table gazing upon the elaborate decorations.

An Amusing Incident.

An amusing incident of the early part of the dinner was furnished by Mr. Taussig, a prominent member of the Hungarian club. He is a tall man with long black hair and a rather striking countenance. He was sitting down in front of the president and started to shake hands with him when there was an immediate rush of secret service men to the rescue. This caused great amusement among the members of the club, and the president gave him a most cordial greeting. It was 10:30 o'clock when Mr. Braun rapped for order that he might introduce the president.

The applause was deafening as the president arose and faced the crowded room to deliver his address. At various points in the brief speech the president was applauded, and he was warmly cheered at the conclusion of his address.

It was impossible to hear the concluding paragraph of the president's speech because of the activities of the secret service men. They swarmed around the main table and with a wedge formation took the president through the narrow hallway and up the stairs to the reception room, where his coat and hat had been left. Then a police sergeant in uniform with half a dozen patrolmen were sent to keep the stairs clear. Ten minutes later the president and his escort left the building. There was continuous cheering when the president appeared at the door of the restaurant to take his carriage to the Jersey ferry. He raised his hat several times in response to the cheers and was driven west rapidly to the Desbrosses street ferry, where he arrived at 11:30 o'clock and boarded the ferry and was taken to Jersey City.

The train on which the president traveled was the regular train for Washington, and left Jersey City at 12:37. There were two special cars for the president and his party. The train will arrive in Washington about 7 o'clock.

STRIKERS RECEIVING PAY.

Those at Lodz Obtain Money From a Mysterious Source.

Lodz, Feb. 15.—Notwithstanding the fact that the strikers have returned to work in the smaller factories the situation is regarded as less satisfactory than Monday night. This is due to evidence that the agitation is now conducted on well defined lines. The large factories remain closed but it has been discovered that the men who are not at work are receiving pay from a mysterious source at the rate of 5 cents per day for each member of the family, a sum sufficient for one substantial meal. The employers are holding daily conferences but are unable to reach an agreement. They appear to be altogether disorganized.

COAL TRAINS GET PREFERENCE.

Passenger Service Practically Abandoned in Iowa.

Des Moines, Ia., Feb. 15.—Not in many years has Iowa been so completely shut in by the cold and snow as at present. Train service has been practically abandoned for twenty-four hours. The results of the blockade are manifesting themselves in a coal and food famine in a score of larger towns and cities. The Chicago, Milwaukee and St. Paul railroad is practically without coal for its lines running out of Des Moines. The cry for fuel from all parts of the state has become so urgent that the Rock Island and other roads announce that coal trains will be given preference over traffic and passenger service will be practically abandoned.

FUEL CONDITIONS SERIOUS.

Omaha Packinghouses Forced to Close for Want of Coal.

Omaha, Feb. 15.—Although there is a moderation in temperature throughout Nebraska and Western Iowa, the railroads are still badly hampered in operating trains. The Chicago-Great Western and the St. Paul and Omaha roads did not run a train either way over the Omaha lines. All freight trains were abandoned.

In Omaha the fuel conditions have become serious. All of the packinghouses have shut down their plants for want of fuel. None of the city dealers have any anthracite coal and none is coming in. The immense railroad yards at the Council Bluffs transfer contain several hundred cars which the roads will be unable to move until they can be dug out of the snow.

CAUSED BY WIND AND SNOW.

Railroad Traffic Almost Completely Tied Up in South Dakota.

Huron, S. D., Feb. 15.—Wind and snow have caused an almost complete tie up of railroads here. Great Northern trains are from six to ten hours late and on the Chicago and Northwestern trains from the East were held at Tracy and there were none from the West, but the line will be opened in a few hours. Snowplows are working in all directions and all lines may soon be open. This is the most serious interruption this winter.

COAL FAMINE IN IOWA.

Dealers Unable to Get Fuel for Their Patrons.

Des Moines, Ia., Feb. 15.—A coal famine exists on the main line of the Milwaukee road from Herndon, Ia., west to Council Bluffs, and much suffering has been the result. Dealers have been unable to get coal consigned to them. In one town the bank has not been open for three days on account of the lack of coal.

Blizzard in Indiana Unabated.

Fort Wayne, Ind., Feb. 15.—The blizzard that has tied up all traffic in the northern section of the state continues unabated. Lake Shore trains are snowbound north of this city. Passengers are suffering from the exposure on all railroads. Business is at a standstill.

BILL PASSES SENATE

AGRICULTURAL APPROPRIATION

MEASURE GOES THROUGH THE UPPER HOUSE.

AMENDED BY HANSBROUGH

NORTH DAKOTA SENATOR MAKES CHANGE IN BILL RESPECTING "DRAWBACKS."

Washington, Feb. 15.—The senate Tuesday passed the agricultural appropriation bill and began consideration of the bill making appropriations for the District of Columbia. The Hansbrough amendment to the agricultural bill relating to drawbacks on duties on wheat, was agreed to after an extended debate in which tariff considerations figured to a considerable extent. As adopted the amendment reads:

"That paragraph 234 of the act of July 21, 1897, entitled 'an act to provide revenue for the government and to encourage the industries of the United States,' shall not be held to be affected by the provisions of section 20 of said act."

Mr. Hansbrough spoke in support of the amendment, going minutely into the legislation and the decision of the attorney general, which, in his view, made necessary the amendment.

Coming to the specific matter in question he said that the price paid for imported wheat would fix the price of the entire wheat product of the United States.

Increased the Price of Wheat.

Mr. Hansbrough said that the fact that the wheat grown in the United States was protected had the effect of making the price of wheat in this country worth from 17 to 20 cents per bushel more than Canadian wheat and he predicted that the practice in conformity with the recent decision would have the effect of lowering the price of American wheat while it increased the price of the Canadian article.

Mr. McCumber (N. D.) supported the Hansbrough amendment, saying the effect of the decision is to establish free trade and to bring the price of American wheat to the Canadian level.

The usual three hours was given to the trial of the impeachment charges against United States Judge Wayne. Monday the senate decided to take no testimony on the point of the inconviction of the judge's residence outside his district, also the judge's statement to the house committee should not be used as evidence in the trial.

In striking contrast to the wealth and fashion which surrounded him at the Lincoln dinner, were the surroundings amid which the president spoke in "Little Hungary."

Promptly at 8:30 the president left the reception room and escorted by Mr. Braun descended to the basement and past the little bar into the cafe. He stood for several minutes at his place at the center of the head table gazing upon the elaborate decorations.

An Amusing Incident.

An amusing incident of the early part of the dinner was furnished by Mr. Taussig, a prominent member of the Hungarian club. He is a tall man with long black hair and a rather striking countenance. He was sitting down in front of the president and started to shake hands with him when there was an immediate rush of secret service men to the rescue. This caused great amusement among the members of the club, and the president gave him a most cordial greeting.

It was 10:30 o'clock when Mr. Braun rapped for order that he might introduce the president.

The applause was deafening as the president arose and faced the crowded room to deliver his address. At various points in the brief speech the president was applauded, and he was warmly cheered at the conclusion of his address.

It was impossible to hear the concluding paragraph of the president's speech because of the activities of the secret service men. They swarmed around the main table and with a wedge formation took the president through the narrow hallway and up the stairs to the reception room, where his coat and hat had been left. Then a police sergeant in uniform with half a dozen patrolmen were sent to keep the stairs clear. Ten minutes later the president and his escort left the building. There was continuous cheering when the president appeared at the door of the restaurant to take his carriage to the Jersey ferry. He raised his hat several times in response to the cheers and was driven west rapidly to the Desbrosses street ferry, where he arrived at 11:30 o'clock and boarded the ferry and was taken to Jersey City.

The train on which the president traveled was the regular train for Washington, and left Jersey City at 12:37. There were two special cars for the president and his party. The train will arrive in Washington about 7 o'clock.

STRIKERS RECEIVING PAY.

Those at Lodz Obtain Money From a Mysterious Source.

Lodz, Feb. 15.—Notwithstanding the fact that the strikers have returned to work in the smaller factories the situation is regarded as less satisfactory than Monday night. This is due to evidence that the agitation is now conducted on well defined lines. The large factories remain closed but it has been discovered that the men who are not at work are receiving pay from a mysterious source at the rate of 5 cents per day for each member of the family, a sum sufficient for one substantial meal. The employers are holding daily conferences but are unable to reach an agreement. They appear to be altogether disorganized.

COAL TRAINS GET PREFERENCE.

Passenger Service Practically Abandoned in Iowa.

Des Moines, Ia., Feb. 15.—Not in many years has Iowa been so completely shut in by the cold and snow as at present. Train service has been practically abandoned for twenty-four hours. The results of the blockade are manifesting themselves in a coal and food famine in a score of larger towns and cities. The Chicago, Milwaukee and St. Paul railroad is practically without coal for its lines running out of Des Moines. The cry for fuel from all parts of the state has become so urgent, that the Rock Island and other roads announce that coal trains will be given preference over traffic and passenger service will be practically abandoned.

FUEL CONDITIONS SERIOUS.

Omaha Packinghouses Forced to Close for Want of Coal.

Omaha, Feb. 15.—Although there is a moderation in temperature throughout Nebraska and Western Iowa, the railroads are still badly hampered in operating trains. The Chicago-Great Western and the St. Paul and Omaha roads did not run a train either way over the Omaha lines. All freight trains were abandoned.

In Omaha the fuel conditions have become serious. All of the packinghouses have shut down their plants for want of fuel. None of the city dealers have any anthracite coal and none is coming in. The immense railroad yards at the Council Bluffs transfer contain several hundred cars which the roads will be unable to move until they can be dug out of the snow.

CAUSED BY WIND AND SNOW.

Railroad Traffic Almost Completely Tied Up in South Dakota.

Huron, S. D., Feb. 15.—Wind and snow have caused an almost complete tie up of railroads here. Great Northern trains are from six to ten hours late and on the Chicago and Northwestern trains from the East were held at Tracy and there were none from the West, but the line will be opened in a few hours. Snowplows are working in all directions and all lines may soon be open. This is the most serious interruption this winter.

COAL FAMINE IN IOWA.

Dealers Unable to Get Fuel for Their Patrons.

Des Moines, Ia., Feb. 15.—A coal famine exists on the main line of the Milwaukee road from Herndon, Ia., west to Council Bluffs, and much suffering has been the result. Dealers have been unable to get coal consigned to them. In one town the bank has not been open for three days on account of the lack of coal.

Blizzard in Indiana Unabated.

Fort Wayne, Ind., Feb. 15.—The blizzard that has tied up all traffic in the northern section of the state continues unabated. Lake Shore trains are snowbound north of this city. Passengers are suffering from the exposure on all railroads. Business is at a standstill.

ADAMS CLOSES HIS DEFENSE.

Gubernatorial Contest in Colorado Nearing Conclusion.

Denver, Feb. 15.—Governor Alva Adams has closed his defense in the contest for the office of governor, and the contestor, former Governor James H. Peabody, will at once begin the presentation of evidence in rebuttal, for which five days are allowed under the rules governing the contest. The legislative committee hearing the contest is required to report its findings to the legislature March 1, and on March 2, the contest will be decided.

Three experts during the day reported on fifteen precincts in Huerfano county. They testified that 1,088 Republican and 162 Democratic ballots out of a total of 2,607 votes were written by two or three persons. Peabody received 1,928 and Adams 628 votes in these precincts. Should these precincts be thrown out, Peabody would lose 1,300 votes. With the same action taken in regard to the Las Animas county boxes, which the Democratic experts examined, Peabody would lose a total of 1,929 votes. Should the assembly agree to throw out all the precincts in which all the experts, both Republican and Democratic, discovered evidence of fraud, Governor Adams would retain his seat by a plurality of 909 votes.

St. Petersburg, Feb. 15.—The departure of Grand Duke Alexis and Vice Admiral Aveila for Libau to bid farewell to the Third Pacific squadron on its departure for the far East does not indicate that there is any intention of postponing the sailing of the squadron, as has been rumored at Kiel. The admiralty has mentioned no change in the programme.

Will Investigate Charges.

BILL PASSES SENATE

AGRICULTURAL APPROPRIATION

MEASURE GOES THROUGH THE UPPER HOUSE.

AMENDED BY HANSBROUGH

NORTH DAKOTA SENATOR MAKES

CHANGE IN BILL RESPECTING "DRAWBACKS."

Washington, Feb. 15.—The senate Tuesday passed the agricultural appropriation bill and began consideration of the bill making appropriations for the District of Columbia. The Hansbrough amendment to the agricultural bill relating to drawbacks on duties on wheat, was agreed to after an extended debate in which tariff considerations figured to a considerable extent. As adopted the amendment reads:

"That paragraph 234 of the act of July 24, 1897, entitled 'an act to provide revenue for the government and to encourage the industries of the United States,' shall not be held to be affected by the provisions of section 30 of said act."

Mr. Hansbrough spoke in support of the amendment, going minutely into the legislation and the decision of the attorney general, which, in his view, made necessary the amendment.

Mr. Hansbrough contended that the decision allowing a drawback on imported wheat was wrong, because the portion of flour made from such wheat could not be distinguished from that made of the domestic product, as, he argued, was necessary under the drawback provisions. He said the opinion would be far-reaching, extending to all articles used in manufacture.

"We hear much about the tariff revision," Mr. Hansbrough remarked, "but if the practice of the treasury department in accordance with this decision is to go on such revision will be unnecessary because the treasury department will make its own revision."

Coming to the specific matter in question he said that the price paid for imported wheat would fix the price of the entire wheat product of the United States.

Increased the Price of Wheat.

Mr. Hansbrough said that the fact that the wheat grown in the United States was protected had the effect of making the price of wheat in this country worth from 17 to 20 cents per bushel more than Canadian wheat and he predicted that the practice in conformity with the recent decision would have the effect of lowering the price of American wheat while it increased the price of the Canadian article.

Mr. McCumber (N. D.) supported the Hansbrough amendment, saying the effect of the decision is to establish free trade and to bring the price of American wheat to the Canadian level.

Senator Hansbrough expresses confidence that the house conferees will accept his amendment. If so, Secretary Shaw's famous drawback order will become a dead letter.

Senator Hansbrough also introduced an amendment to the sundry civil bill against the drawback privilege for mixed wheat. In support of it he asked to have inserted in the Record a letter written by Representative Volstead, setting forth the alleged illegality of Secretary Shaw's regulations, and protesting in behalf of Northwestern wheat raisers, who, he contends, will be injured by competition with Canadian wheat milled for the export market.

The usual three hours was given to the trial of the impeachment charges against United States Judge Swayne. Monday the senate decided to take no testimony on the point of the inconvenience of the judge's residence outside his district, also the judge's statement to the house committee should not be used as evidence in the trial.

THROWING MONEY TO BIRDS.

State of Illinois Will Feed Them During Cold Weather.

Springfield, Ill., Feb. 15.—The state of Illinois is about to try an experiment that is almost literally "throwing money to the birds." At an expense of over $5,000 the game birds of Illinois are to be fed by the state during the continuance of the severe cold. Deputy game wardens will buy grain from the farmers and scatter the kernels where the quail and prairie chicken feed. The deputies are authorized to spend $50 in each county.

Pioneer Minnesota Jurist Dead.

BRITISH PARLIAMENT OPENED.

King Edward Delivers the Speech From the Throne.

London, Feb. 15.—The first day's proceedings in parliament left rather a decided impression in the lobbies that the government will manage to hold out till the end of the session. The government's legislative programme, which is devoted in the main to social reforms, will be fairly popular, whilst the avoidance of difficult questions like that of the redistribution of seats and Premier Balfour's firmness in thrusting aside the fiscal problem all will tend in the same direction. On the other hand, the Liberals appear to be as distant as ever from any approach to unanimity on the vexed question of the leadership. Sir Henry Campbell-Bannerman, Earl Spencer, Herbert Henry Asquith and Sir Henry Hartley Fowler all are spoken of as possible leaders of the next Liberal ministry, to say nothing of Lord Rosebery's even superior claim to that position. Could he be inclined to exert his undoubted influence. Everything will depend upon Mr. Balfour's success in holding his followers together and overcoming the apathy born of the knowledge that the whole country is looking for and expecting a general election.

King Edward opened parliament with all the historic pageantry that has marked the ceremony since his accession. He read the speech from the throne to the assembled lords and commons in the upper chamber. The document was commonplace.

Big Storm Brewing.

The position of Sir Anthony MacDonnell, under secretary for Ireland, in the Unionist councils, threatens to bring a storm about the government's head. MacDonnell is credited with being responsible for Secretary Wyndham's more liberal policy towards Ireland, and is accordingly hated by the Ulster section of the Irish Unionists, who, led by Sir Edward Carson, are doing their best to overthrow him.

At a meeting of the Irish Unionists during the day a resolution was adopted openly censuring Mr. Wyndham for "abdicating his position and responsibility in favor of a subordinate official with a policy of his own, directed to destroying the basis of Irish Unionism," and protesting against the government permitting such an abuse of power. It is believed that Premier Balfour hitherto has supported Secretary Wyndham and MacDonnell, but the matter appears to be assuming a serious phase, involving the defection of many Irish Unionists.

REPLIES TO HEARST

SULLIVAN OF MASSACHUSETTS

ANSWERS CHARGES OF NEW YORK CONGRESSMAN.

Washington, Feb. 15.—The second chapter of the episode between Mr. Sullivan of Massachusetts and Mr. Hearst of New York, occurred in the house during the day when Mr. Sullivan again took the floor on a question of personal privilege and related the circumstances leading up to the indictment and conviction of his father and himself for manslaughter. In decided contrast with the remarks of Monday, when the two men heaped upon each other epithets and charges of a serious nature, Mr. Sullivan's latest statement was devoid of any outright attack upon his colleague and was a straight recitation of the occurrences referred to by Mr. Hearst Monday. Mr. Sullivan admitted the charge, but said that he himself had been only technically guilty and had been permitted to leave the court a free man, without serving a day's imprisonment or being subjected to a fine. His father had been imprisoned a year and a half, but on the introduction of new evidence, which presented a grave doubt of guilt, his father had been pardoned.

Mr. Sullivan's statement was listened to with marked attention and at its conclusion he was warmly applauded, many members leaving their seats and shaking his hand.

Mr. Hearst was not present during the time he spoke.

The balance of the day was devoted to consideration of the naval appropriation bill, Mr. Littlefield speaking at length regarding the necessity for keeping appropriations within the limits of the revenues of the country.

"BRIBERY" BILL DEFEATED.

Measure Suggested by Governor Folk Killed in Missouri Senate.

Jefferson City, Mo., Feb. 15.—By the narrow margin of three votes, the "bribery" bill introduced by Senator Dickinson at the suggestion of Governor Folk was defeated in the upper house of the legislature. Great interest centered on the fate of this measure.

The bill provided that witnesses who testify in bribery prosecutions be themselves exempt from prosecution. The opposition claimed that the bill upset the plan of criminal practice in the state.

MAIN EVENT OF VISIT

PRESIDENT ROOSEVELT DINES

WITH HUNGARIANS IN A NEW YORK RESTAURANT.

GREAT PRECAUTIONS TAKEN

SECRET SERVICE MEN AND POLICEMEN CLOSELY GUARD

CHIEF EXECUTIVE.

New York, Feb. 15.—After two days of receptions and dinners in New York city President Roosevelt left at night over the Pennsylvania railway for Washington. The events of the day included a reception at the University club and at night the event of his visit—the dinner given by the Hungarian Republican club at the restaurant "Little Hungary," on the East Side, where a president has never been before.

The fact that Mr. Roosevelt was to visit places where he has not been since he was governor of New York, and where no other president, while in office, had been, led to unusual police precautions, but nothing untoward happened.

The president left the Hungarian club dinner after making a brief speech in which he told of the duties of an American citizen as he saw them and was driven directly to the Desbrosses street station, accompanied by a squad of mounted police. When he reached the ferry house he alighted from his carriage, shook hands with the members of the mounted squad and then went to the men's cabin in the ferry boat.

The boat arrived in Jersey City at 11:50 and some minutes afterwards he boarded the train.

Great Precautions Taken.

From the time the president arrived on the East Side until his departure the greatest precautions were taken for his safety. Secret service men guarded his person and policemen in uniform and in plain clothes were stationed all about the restaurant and for blocks on each side, so that the crowds of East Side residents, who had gathered to see the chief executive of the nation were not able to get within two or three blocks of him. When the president left the banquet room he was heartily cheered by people in the windows and doors of tenements nearby.

Mr. Roosevelt waved his hat in response as he entered his carriage and started for the ferry.

When the president drove up to "Little Hungary" he fulfilled a promise made to members of the Hungarian Republican club several years ago that he would be their guest, if their prediction came true and he ever went to the White House.

This concluding function of the president's two days' visit to New York was the most picturesque that he had attended.

In striking contrast to the wealth and fashion which surrounded him at the Lincoln dinner, were the surroundings amid which the president spoke in "Little Hungary."

Promptly at 8:30 the president left the reception room and escorted by Mr. Braun descended to the basement and past the little bar into the cafe. He stood for several minutes at his place at the center of the head table gazing upon the elaborate decorations.

An Amusing Incident.

An amusing incident of the early part of the dinner was furnished by Mr. Taussig, a prominent member of the Hungarian club. He is a tall man with long black hair and a rather striking countenance. He was sitting down in front of the president and started to shake hands with him when there was an immediate rush of secret service men to the rescue. This caused great amusement among the members of the club, and the president gave him a most cordial greeting.

The applause was deafening as the president arose and faced the crowded room to deliver his address. At various points in the brief speech the president was applauded, and he was warmly cheered at the conclusion of his address.

It was impossible to hear the concluding paragraph of the president's speech because of the activities of the secret service men. They swarmed around the main table and with a wedge formation took the president through the narrow hallway and up the stairs to the reception room, where his coat and hat had been left. He raised his hat several times in response to the cheers and was driven west rapidly to the Desbrosses street ferry, where he arrived at 11:30 o'clock and boarded the ferry and was taken to Jersey City.

The train on which the president traveled was the regular train for Washington, and left Jersey City at 12:37. There were two special cars for the president and his party. The train will arrive in Washington about 7 o'clock.

Young Idlers of the Time.

Among the moderately well to do there is an army of young men growing up in idleness in this country who think it beneath their dignity to learn a trade or follow a profession and who in many instances form that large class known as gentled idlers. They have been pampered and petted by their parents until they have come to the conclusion that the world owes them a living without their having to work for it or give an equivalent in toll. They are in truth a menace to the peace and welfare of the country, and those who encourage them to it are as reprehensible as they.—Sioux City Tribune.

Proofs of the Russian Nation's Fitness For Self Government Cited by the Professor—How the Peasants Greeted Reforms—Zemstvos May Be Regarded as the Forerunners of a Parliament.

The present revolt against the autocracy in Russia, says Professor Michael Michailovitch in the New York American, has raised the question, Is the Russian nation able to govern itself? I have met both here and in other countries men of high position and more than average knowledge of Russia who did not think that the people there at present deserve any other form of government than the one they have.

Intelligent Russians think different. Even M. Witte, once more the right hand of the czar, in his latest work, "Autonomy and Zemstvo," admits that he has not the slightest doubt of the ability of the Russian people to govern themselves, though he is opposed to the sudden granting of a complete constitution.

The Russian zemstvos are by no means composed of the lower classes. The majority of their members are officials who belong to the lower nobility, many of whom hold government positions. The zemstvos may indeed well be considered the forerunners of a Russian parliament.

There are also many who confound the Russian "tschinovniks" with the Russian bureaucracy.

The fact is that it is far from that. Everybody who can claim a "tschin" holds any office under the government. Claim to "tschin" (rank) has everybody who has graduated from a higher educational institution. Every graduate from a high school, every officer who leaves the army to go into civil service, is, according to Russian law, given a "tschin," and in this way "tschin" stands rather for a certain amount of education than for what may be defined as rank. A person of noble birth has the privilege of obtaining a "tschin" easier and more quickly than a person of lower birth, so that a nobleman needs only have served a very short time in a government office to become a "tschinovnik."

Every clerk who has passed an examination becomes a "tschinovnik" and is thereby to a certain extent safe from arrest without a special warrant. All the members of the zemstvos are without exception "tschinovniks," and many of them may even lay claim to the title of "excellency."

Those who consider the great Russian people an uneducated horde, without culture and education, apt to commit all kinds of excesses on the slightest provocation, are also very much mistaken.

It is true that the Russian moujik has been trampled upon and treated like cattle and that there are many who would still like to treat him in this manner, but it is also true that he has now a strong longing for education and strives to obtain it with all the stubborn energy which is part of his nature.

Everywhere where he is not oppressed and robbed he shows an unusual degree of tact, intelligence and pride and a glowing desire for freedom and independence. Do not more than 15,000,000 Russian subjects belonging to sects outside of the Orthodox church struggle continually for religious freedom?

Do not pamphlets, proclamations and papers find their way to even the remotest village of the empire?

Is it not a fact that many small communities in Siberia which have been forgotten by the imperial government govern their own affairs in the most praiseworthy manner, absolutely without any control by czar, popes, police or tschinovniks?

We who know the Russian people know it to be entirely different from the general ideas about it. We remember how the Russian peasants behaved when they were suddenly relieved from serfdom.

During the last few years which preceded the ukase which set the serfs free there were violent peasant uprisings all over, property was destroyed and chateaus burned and pillaged.

During the reign of Katherina not a single year passed that troops did not have to suppress peasant riots. Thirteen governments were in open revolt at one time, and peasants were shot down by the hundreds by regular armies before peace was restored.

When it became known that the czar intended to abolish serfdom all the large landowners raised the cry that the proclamation would be followed by anarchy all over the country; that the peasants liberated from their fetters would kill every landed aristocrat and set fire to every chateau in the country. The greatest precautions were taken to prevent this, and on Feb. 19, 1861, whole armies were held in readiness to suppress the expected disturbances. But what happened?

The people greeted the reforms not with violence, but with blessings and prayers. With expressions of the most touching gratitude they accepted their personal liberty as something sacred and with joy took up the many new burdens which were imposed upon them, feeling that with the new privilege must follow new duties, and up to the last reactionary reform in 1890 two Russian governments, the zemstvos of Perm and Wjatka, were run by the peasants themselves and by officials elected by peasants.

These peasants governed their own communities so well that in all Russia

there was no district where municipal institutions were more splendidly run. Schools, hospitals, churches and public roads were built and more improvements were made in these two zemstvos than in any others in the country, and all this was accomplished without borrowing a kopeck from the outside, the taxpayers gladly contributing all the money necessary.

And there are many other proofs. Have not the tens of thousands of soldiers who have sacrificed their lives with the greatest enthusiasm in the far east, in Manchuria and inside the walls of Port Arthur, proved that the Russian people possess moral power and courage to face death like heroes?

Were they fighting for a just cause, had they received a little more training, they would know not only how to die, but how to conquer.

We have no fear of the disintegration of the empire. It is only a question of time when the nationalities ruled by Russia will acquire autonomy, and this will happen without the continuous quarrels which we witness every day in Austria. The Russians are not nearly as small a minority within the empire as are the Germans in Austria.

The Russian people will soon see the end of autocracy and when given a constitution will show itself fully able to govern its own affairs, and when full amnesty is given to all political offenders the thousands of men of all classes who have suffered imprisonment and banishment rather than prove traitors to their ideals will carry Russia onward and forward on the road to honor and fame. From the ranks of these martyrs shall be chosen a set of officials who will soon silence those who think that the Russian people are not fit for self government.

FOREST FARM FOR BABY SON

Estate to Be Formed by Indiana Man For One-year old Child.

A forest and a sheep farm of 420 acres is the estate to be formed by P. J. Eigenmann, president of the Rockport Trust company, for his son, now one year old, says a dispatch from Indianapolis, Ind.

W. H. Freeman, secretary of the Indiana state board of forestry, in his talks before farmers' institutes recently has tried to impress on his hearers the value of using their broken sandy clay land for forest preserves. Mr. Eigenmann became so interested in the plan that he has decided to turn 420 acres of broken, denuded sandy clay land at Bradley's Crossing into a forest and sheep farm and hopes that by the time the boy, for whose benefit the investment is made, grows up this property, now valued at about $10 an acre, will be very valuable.

In speaking of the experiment Mr. Freeman described the soil as about six feet deep, underlaid with soapstone clay, which formed an impervious stratum for water. When exposed and denuded, said Mr. Freeman, this land becomes barren and badly eroded. "This sort of land can be made valuable," he said. "On the loose, sandy clay locust trees will be planted eight to twelve feet apart. In the harder clay soil chestnut trees will be planted at similar distances.

"Wherever locust trees are found there you will also find a fine stand of blue grass. The locust tree is leguminous, not dense of shade. Its roots rapidly network the soil and prevent erosion, and a few years will see a dense, luxuriant growth of blue grass.

"These trees afford just enough denseness of shade to protect such land from the sun's rays, conserve the moisture and stimulate a growth of grass, and the seeds, leaves and flowers, because of their leguminous properties, act as fertilizer. Thinning of the trees and the grass will follow as necessity demands. It is after a good stand of grass is obtained that the stock will be allowed to graze over the land. Meantime the trees will be protected from the stock.

"The objects aimed at will be accomplished. Grazing for sheep and cattle will be afforded, and a valuable forest estate of posts, telegraph and telephone poles and railroad timbers will be obtained. I can think of no more practical way to provide for that one-year-old son."

Resort For Shopgirls.

At a recent meeting in Chicago of the National Promotion of Health club Mrs. E. Cornelia Cladin announced that the club has been offered 100 acres of land in the Ozark mountains as a place of recreation for sick shopgirls on the condition that the organization increased its membership to 1,000, says a Chicago dispatch. She made a plea for this increased membership. "There are many girls who work in the stores from one year to the other," she said, "who are tired out and need a complete rest. Our plan is to have a place where they can spend a few months of the summer, living in tents, and recover the health they have lost in the stores."

Return of Pendent Earrings.

Cluster settings for earrings, such as emeralds surrounded by pearls or by diamonds, are at present the correct thing among stage women and others who like pronounced effects, says the Jewelers' Circular-Weekly. These earrings are made up in the same forms as the jeweled buttons now in vogue on velvet frocks. Pendent earrings in old fashioned silver and gold, with added settings of gems, are being displayed in some of the oriental shops, while antique shops offer their quaintest in earrings. If the rage for costumes of certain periods should continue, jewelers predict that the pendent earrings, much jeweled, may return.

Forecast—Generally fair and warmer.

Temperature (Record kept by Dr. J. L. Camp for 24 hours ending at 3 o'clock this afternoon)—Maximum 4 above zero; minimum 30 below zero.

TWENTY-FIVE million bunches of bananas are brought to this country annually by one firm.

The Aitkin Age remarks that Brainerd is in a very fair way to get a government postoffice building. We need it.

Hoch regrets that he was watched so closely on his way to Chicago by the officer having him in charge that he did not have a chance to add another wife to his already large string.

The weather is so cold and fuel so scarce in some parts of Iowa that considerable suffering is reported. In one the only bank closed for three days on account of not having coal. Banks usually have money to burn.

The farmers tributary to West Branch in the adjoining county of Mille Laes received something over $6,000 in cash during the past six months from the creamery located there. Institutions of that character are what make a county prosperous and its citizens contented.

Young Idlers of the Time.

Among the moderately well to do there is an army of young men growing up in idleness in this country who think it beneath their dignity to learn a trade or follow a profession and who in many instances form that large class known as gentled idlers. They have been pampered and petted by their parents until they have come to the conclusion that the world owes them a living without their having to work for it or give an equivalent in toll. They are in truth a menace to the peace and welfare of the country, and those who encourage them to it are as reprehensible as they.—Sioux City Tribune.

SELF RULE IN RUSSIA

Prof. Michailovitch on Empire's Ability to Govern Itself.

NO FEAR OF DISINTEGRATION.

Proofs of the Russian Nation's Fitness For Self Government Cited by the Professor—How the Peasants Greeted Reforms—Zemstvos May Be Regarded as the Forerunners of a Parliament.

The present revolt against the autocracy in Russia, says Professor Michael Michailovitch in the New York American, has raised the question, Is the Russian nation able to govern itself? I have met both here and in other countries men of high position and more than average knowledge of Russia who did not think that the people there at present deserve any other form of government than the one they have.

Intelligent Russians think different. Even M. Witte, once more the right hand of the czar, in his latest work, "Autonomy and Zemstvo," admits that he has not the slightest doubt of the ability of the Russian people to govern themselves, though he is opposed to the sudden granting of a complete constitution.

The Russian zemstvos are by no means composed of the lower classes. The majority of their members are officials who belong to the lower nobility, many of whom hold government positions. The zemstvos may indeed well be considered the forerunners of a Russian parliament.

There are also many who confound the Russian "tschinowniks" with the Russian bureaucracy.

The fact is that it is far from that. Everybody who can claim a "tschin" holds any office under the government. Claim to "tschin" (rank) has everybody who has graduated from a higher educational institution. Every graduate from a high school, every officer who leaves the army to go into civil service, is, according to Russian law, given a "tschin," and in this way "tschin" stands rather for a certain amount of education than for what may be defined as rank. A person of noble birth has the privilege of obtaining a "tschin" easier and more quickly than a person of lower birth, so that a nobleman needs only have served a very short time in a government office to become a "tschinownik."

Every clerk who has passed an examination becomes a "tschinownik" and is thereby to a certain extent safe from arrest without a special warrant. All the members of the zemstvos are without exception "tschinowniks," and many of them may even lay claim to the title of "excellency."

Those who consider the great Russian people an uneducated horde, without culture and education, apt to commit all kinds of excesses on the slightest provocation, are also very much mistaken.

It is true that the Russian moujik has been trampled upon and treated like cattle and that there are many who would still like to treat him in this manner, but it is also true that he has now a strong longing for education and strives to obtain it with all the stubborn energy which is part of his nature.

Young Idlers of the Time.

Among the moderately well to do there is an army of young men growing up in idleness in this country who think it beneath their dignity to learn a trade or follow a profession and who in many instances form that large class known as genteel idlers. They have been pampered and petted by their parents until they have come to the conclusion that the world owes them a living without their having to work for it or give an equivalent in toll. They are in truth a menace to the peace and welfare of the country, and those who encourage them to it are as reprehensible as they.—Sioux City Tribune.

"Simon Sugg," he said, "was an odd old fellow who used to live down state. I knew him well when I was a boy. One day a friend met him.

"Simon," said he, 'do you remember Jim Hooper, that went to school with us down at Monticello?'

"Jim Hooper?" Of co'se I 'member Jim Hooper. Little slim fellow, wa'n't he?'

"Yaas. Well, Jim's gone and noveled you!"

SELF RULE IN RUSSIA

Prof. Michailovitch on Empire's Ability to Govern Itself.

NO FEAR OF DISINTEGRATION.

Proofs of the Russian Nation's Fitness For Self Government Cited by the Professor—How the Peasants Greeted Reforms—Zemstvos May Be Regarded as the Forerunners of a Parliament.

The present revolt against the autocracy in Russia, says Professor Michael Michailovitch in the New York American, has raised the question, Is the Russian nation able to govern itself? I have met both here and in other countries men of high position and more than average knowledge of Russia who did not think that the people there at present deserve any other form of government than the one they have.

Intelligent Russians think different. Even M. Witte, once more the right hand of the czar, in his latest work, "Autonomy and Zemstvo," admits that he has not the slightest doubt of the ability of the Russian people to govern themselves, though he is opposed to the sudden granting of a complete constitution.

The Russian zemstvos are by no means composed of the lower classes. The majority of their members are officials who belong to the lower nobility, many of whom hold government positions. The zemstvos may indeed well be considered the forerunners of a Russian parliament.

There are also many who confound the Russian "tschinovniks" with the Russian bureaucracy.

The fact is that it is far from that. Everybody who can claim a "tschin" holds an office under the government. Claim to "tschin" (rank) has everybody who has graduated from a higher educational institution. Every graduate from a high school, every officer who leaves the army to go into civil service, is, according to Russian law, given a "tschin," and in this way "tschin" stands rather for a certain amount of education than for what may be defined as rank. A person of noble birth has the privilege of obtaining a "tschin" easier and more quickly than a person of lower birth, so that a nobleman needs only have served a very short time in a government office to become a "tschinovnik."

Every clerk who has passed an examination becomes a "tschinovnik" and is thereby to a certain extent safe from arrest without a special warrant. All the members of the zemstvos are without exception "tschinovniks," and many of them may even lay claim to the title of "excellency."

Those who consider the great Russian people an uneducated horde, without culture and education, apt to commit all kinds of excesses on the slightest provocation, are also very much mistaken.

It is true that the Russian moujik has been trampled upon and treated like cattle and that there are many who would still like to treat him in this manner, but it is also true that he has now a strong longing for education and strives to obtain it with all the stubborn energy which is part of his nature.

Everywhere where he is not oppressed and robbed he shows an unusual degree of tact, intelligence and pride and a glowing desire for freedom and independence. Do not more than 15,000,000 Russian subjects belonging to sects outside of the Orthodox church struggle continually for religious freedom?

Do not pamphlets, proclamations and papers find their way to even the remotest village of the empire?

Is it not a fact that many small communities in Siberia which have been forgotten by the imperial government govern their own affairs in the most praiseworthy manner, absolutely without any control by czar, popes, police or tschinovniks?

We who know the Russian people know it to be entirely different from the general ideas about it. We remember how the Russian peasants behaved when they were suddenly relieved from serfdom.

During the last few years which preceded the ukase which set the serfs free there were violent peasant uprisings all over, property was destroyed and chateaus burned and pillaged.

During the reign of Katherina not a single year passed that troops did not have to suppress peasant riots. Thirteen governments were in open revolt at one time, and peasants were shot down by the hundreds by regular armies before peace was restored.

When it became known that the czar intended to abolish serfdom all the large landowners raised the cry that the proclamation would be followed by anarchy all over the country; that the peasants liberated from their fetters would kill every landed aristocrat and set fire to every chateau in the country. The greatest precautions were taken to prevent this, and on Feb. 19, 1861, whole armies were held in readiness to suppress the expected disturbances. But what happened?

The people greeted the reforms not with violence, but with blessings and prayers. With expressions of the most touching gratitude they accepted their personal liberty as something sacred and with joy took up the many new burdens which were imposed upon them, feeling that with the new privilege must follow new duties, and up to the last reactionary reform in 1890 two Russian governments, the zemstvos of Perm and Wjatka, were run by the peasants themselves and by officials elected by peasants.

These peasants governed their own communities so well that in all Russia

there was no district where municipal institutions were more splendidly run. Schools, hospitals, churches and public roads were built and more improvements were made in these two zemstvos than in any others in the country, and all this was accomplished without borrowing a kopeck from the outside, the taxpayers gladly contributing all the money necessary.

And there are many other proofs. Have not the tens of thousands of soldiers who have sacrificed their lives with the greatest enthusiasm in the far east, in Manchuria and inside the walls of Port Arthur, proved that the Russian people possess moral power and courage to face death like heroes?

Were they fighting for a just cause, had they received a little more training, they would know not only how to die, but how to conquer.

We have no fear of the disintegration of the empire. It is only a question of time when the nationalities ruled by Russia will acquire autonomy, and this will happen without the continuous quarrels which we witness every day in Austria. The Russians are not nearly as small a minority within the empire as are the Germans in Austria.

The Russian people will soon see the end of autocracy and when given a constitution will show itself fully able to govern its own affairs, and when full amnesty is given to all political offenders the thousands of men of all classes who have suffered imprisonment and banishment rather than prove traitors to their ideals will carry Russia onward and forward on the road to honor and fame. From the ranks of these martyrs shall be chosen a set of officials who will soon silence those who think that the Russian people are not fit for self government.

FOREST FARM FOR BABY SON

Estate to Be Formed by Indiana Man For One-year old Child.

A forest and a sheep farm of 420 acres is the estate to be formed by P. J. Eigenmann, president of the Rockport Trust company, for his son, now one year old, says a dispatch from Indianapolis, Ind.

W. H. Freeman, secretary of the Indiana state board of forestry, in his talks before farmers' institutes recently has tried to impress on his hearers the value of using their broken sandy clay land for forest preserves. Mr. Eigenmann became so interested in the plan that he has decided to turn 420 acres of broken, denuded sandy clay land at Bradley's Crossing into a forest and sheep farm and hopes that by the time the boy, for whose benefit the investment is made, grows up this property, now valued at about $10 an acre, will be very valuable.

In speaking of the experiment Mr. Freeman described the soil as about six feet deep, underlaid with soapstone clay, which formed an impervious stratum for water. When exposed and denuded, said Mr. Freeman, this land becomes barren and badly eroded. "This sort of land can be made valuable," he said. "On the loose, sandy clay black locust trees will be planted eight to twelve feet apart. In the harder clay soil chestnut trees will be planted at similar distances.

"Wherever locust trees are found there you will also find a fine stand of blue grass. The locust tree is leguminous, not dense of shade. Its roots rapidly network the soil and prevent erosion, and a few years will see a dense, luxuriant growth of blue grass.

"These trees afford just enough denseness of shade to protect such land from the sun's rays, conserve the moisture and stimulate a growth of grass, and the seeds, leaves and flowers, because of their leguminous properties, act as fertilizer. Thinning of the trees and the grass will follow as necessity demands. It is after a good stand of grass is obtained that the stock will be allowed to graze over the land. Meantime the trees will be protected from the stock.

"The objects aimed at will be accomplished. Grazing for sheep and cattle will be afforded, and a valuable forest estate of posts, telegraph and telephone poles and railroad timbers will be obtained. I can think of no more practical way to provide for that one-year-old son."

Resort For Shopgirls.

At a recent meeting in Chicago of the National Promotion of Health club Mrs. E. Cornelia Clafin announced that the club has been offered 100 acres of land in the Ozark mountains as a place of recreation for sick shopgirls on the condition that the organization increased its membership to 1,000, says a Chicago dispatch. She made a plea for this increased membership. "There are many girls who work in the stores from one year to the other," she said, "who are tired out and need a complete rest. Our plan is to have a place where they can spend a few months of the summer, living in tents, and recover the health they have lost in the stores."

Return of Pendent Earrings.

Cluster settings for earrings, such as emeralds surrounded by pearls or by diamonds, are at present the correct thing among stage women and others who like pronounced effects, says the Jewelers' Circular-Weekly. These earrings are made up in the same forms as the jeweled buttons now in vogue on velvet frocks. Pendent earrings in old fashioned silver and gold, with added settings of gems, are being displayed in some of the oriental shops, while antique shops offer their quaintest in earrings. If the rage for costumes of certain periods should continue, jewelers predict that the pendent earrings, much bejeweled, may return.

EXPLORE CUYUNA

Pickands, Mather & Co. Has Taken Another Option on Land Held By Cuyler Adams

GIVEN CONTRACT FOR DRILLING

Options Given on Lands to a Firm Whose Name is Withheld at This Time

Anything now regarding the development of the Cuyuna ore range located in this county is of interest and the least intimation that such a firm as Pickands, Mather & Co. are interesting themselves is good news. The following from the News-Tribune, of Duluth, will be read with interest:

"Pickands, Mather & Co. the Cleveland iron and vessel concern, has taken from Cuyler Adams an option on another tract of land on the Cuyuna range in Crow Wing county. This makes two options that this firm has taken for the purpose of exploring for ore on the new iron range. The first was in 18-45-29, and the new option is for land in 10-45-20.

"The company has awarded a contract for drilling to Cole & McDonald of Duluth, and two drills are at work in section 8. It is learned also that W. C. Agnew and his associates have taken an option from Mr. Adams to explore a tract in the vicinity of the drilling now being done for Pickands, Mather & Co. Cole & McDonald are also doing the drilling for them.

"Mr. Adams has given options on two other tracts to an iron company, the name of which is withheld, to extend about six miles northeast of the operations being conducted by the Cleveland concern.

"The ore that has been found in the Cuyuna range was reached at a depth of from 60 to 160 feet. There is no outcropping on the lands to indicate any ore being there, and the presence of the mineral was detected by the use of the needle. The dip of the ore deposits appears to be sharper than on the Vermillion.

"If mines are developed on the Cuyuna range, the Northern Pacific road will fall into a good thing in the way of unexpected tonnage. The haul to Duluth is about 90 miles."

INTEREST INCREASES HERE.

With such reports as the above and the fact that several drills are at work east of here, interest in the Cuyuna range is increasing in Brainerd, and even the most conservative business men of the city have come to the conclusion that "there is something in it" after all. The fact that Pickands, Mather & Co. are interesting themselves is evidence enough for some of the business men to convince them that the claims originally made by Mr. Adams are founded on facts.

Much discussion has been heard regarding the purchase of the Jacob Tabert property east of here and the further attempt to buy up more of this land. When the first ore talk was made in Brainerd about a year and a half ago and when Mr. Tabert sold a part of his land for $60 an acre, interest seemed to center at this locality and the fact that further purchases of this land are being negotiated gives credence to the story that there are rich deposits of ore here. Mr. Tabert has been offered within a short time $75 an acre for the land, some eighty acres, which his house and buildings are located on, but it is understood that he has declined the offer, as he wants to sell all of the 160 acres he has left or nothing at all.

Many business men in Brainerd are working on schemes to acquire a lot of this land and thousands of acres have been taken up or options secured on them. In many cases mineral leases have been secured on land.

CLAIM A NEW FIND.

There was some excitement this morning over another discovery on section 5, 47, 29. It is claimed that while one of the Cole & McDonald drills was being worked here that a big find of lead and silver was made. It was found in such large quantities that a representative of the company was sent for and sample of the mineral was taken and a representative has gone east to confer with capitalists who are also interested.

Dissolution of Partnership.

Notice is hereby given that the Lake Region Land Co., has this day dissolved by mutual consent, Eleanor Saunders, retiring and E. E. Bernard continuing the business, to pay all bills, and collect all moneys due said firm.

WOMEN WHO WORK

Need Strong, Vigorous Nerves.

The life of women and girls who work is at best a hard one and even under the most favorable circumstances the results often show shattered nervous systems and broken down health. To meet the conditions required of her, to sustain the extra strain and nervous tension of duties never intended for her in the plan of nature, she must use every endeavor to preserve the vitality of her nerves and the regularity of the female functions. No remedy ever offered the world has accomplished the wonderful results obtained from the use of Dr. A. W. Chase's Nerve Pills. By supplying the nerves and blood with the elements necessary to their life and activity, they cause a steady increase of natural strength to both body and mind, brighten the eyes, clear the complexion and instead of a depressed, wornout feeling, there will be one of buoyancy and life. Dr. A. W. Chase's Nerve Pills make life worth living.

Mrs. Anna Doretz, of No. 919 Cleveland Avenue, Niagara Falls, N. Y., says: "I was overtaxed with work and completely tired out. JOHN LARSON
HAS SOLD OUT

E. C. and L. W. Thabes Buy Out the Well Known Flour and Feed Business

TAKE POSSESSION ON MARCH 1

Both Gentlemen are Well and Favorably Known in this City and County.

A deal was consummated today whereby the business of John Larson, the flour, feed and fuel man, was transferred to E. C. and L. W. Thabes, both of this city, and they will take charge the first of the month.

Mr. Larson has been in the flour and feed business in this city for a long time and by progressive management has built up a good establishment. It is understood that he has not yet decided what line of business he will engage in, but it is the hope of all his old patrons and friends in this city that he will continue to make Brainerd his home.

The Messrs. Thabes Bros. have been residents of this city nearly all their lives and are too well known for their reliability and integrity to require any extended comment. They have been contracting plasterers in this city for a long time and are considered among the very best workmen in northern Minnesota. They expect to continue the business bought of Mr. Larson along the same lines and will do all in their power to merit the patronage of all old customers as well as any new ones who will give them a trial.

A Pleasing Visitor.

All sort of publications come to an editor, but among the lot none is more keenly enjoyed than that right tidy little monthly Sports Afield—the February issue of which contains a capital assortment of good reading for the sportsman, the naturalist, the horseman, the dog fancier and lover of adventure generally. Prof. Kingery tells of a camping trip to the famed Pictured Rocks that border for many miles on the south shore of Lake Superior; Joe Cone has two "clinking good" poems; while all lovers of canoeing and ocean life will be glad to read "From Fresh Water to Salt" and "The Perils of Sword-fishing." If you have ever hunted the festive grey squirrel or the elusive grouse, you should read Dr. Steele's "A Day in Ellington Wood," and many a more pretentious article is not so interesting as Hamilton Percival's "Horse Breeding in New England." Tom Uzzell of the Missouri State University give a canoe-like description of the joys of archery—a neglected but entrancing sport; while Horace Wyndham's narrative of a sea voyage—"Steering from the Cape"—tells of some of the things one meets up with on board a tramp steamer. An Alaska hold-up story (crisp, but good), "Fox Hunting in the Tennessee Mountains," "In the Coeur d'Alene Country," "With the Ducks in Utah" and "A Trapping Trip to the Atonabee" (Ontario), together with a rarely equalled collection of shooting, fishing and kennel articles, combine to round out a magazine that is genuinely worth while. Fifteen cts. a copy. Your newsdealer can supply you; if not send direct to Sports Afield, 358 Dearborne St., Chicago, Ill.

Dr. J. L. Camp Left for St. Paul Last Night to Meet With Walker Sanitarium Commission

Dr. J. L. Camp left last night for St. Paul where he will attend a meeting today of the commission appointed some years ago to arrange for a sanitarium for consumptives at Walker. This commission has made a study of the question and has visited other institutions throughout the country, has recommended a site at Walker and has submitted general plans for the buildings. The meeting at St. Paul at this time will be with the state board of control and the plans of the buildings as prepared by the architects will be gone over and it is hoped the board of control will approve the same.

IS YOUR BOY A DRUNKARD?

Help Him by Orrine to Overcome His Craving—Can be Given Secretly.

If your boy or husband has fallen a victim to the drink habit, endangering his future happiness and prosperity, do not delay a moment in helping him to overcome his craving for drink. Will-power alone cannot cure the liquor habit, for drunkenness is a disease and the desire for liquor must be satisfied.

Orrine, the wonderful specific for the cure of the whiskey and beer habit, removes all craving for drink with a few days' use and effects a permanent and lasting cure. It comes in two forms. No. 1 is perfectly colorless, tasteless and odorless, and can be given in tea, coffee or food without the patient's knowledge, but we recommend No. 2, in pill form, to be used by those who desire to free themselves from the terrible mastery of drink. The cost of either form is $1 a box. Orrine, the only guaranteed cure for the drink habit, is sold and recommended by H. P. Dunn & Co., Central Drug Store, National Bank Block, Brainerd, Minn.

To Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Metcalf.

Just fifty years ago today
She stood a blushing bride,
Oh, surely Time forgot her
In his swiftly whirling tide.
So thinks the bridegroom, as he looks
In her sweet face tonight.
The only change that he can see,
The gold has turned to white.
The golden locks where sunshine
Once seemed to come and go,
Now cluster on her forehead
As white as drifting snow.

And this is all the work that Time
Seems able to have done.
It proves that thoughts, pure, holy
thoughts,
Will keep the face so young.

They've had their cares and trials, too,
As all must have on earth,
But never once did they forget
The Loving Saviour's birth.

And to Him in every trouble
They always cried aloud,
And every time, the sunshine
Creeped out behind the cloud.

They've lived to see their children
All settled well in life.
The boys—proud happy fathers,
The girl—a loving wife.

And they thank Him for these blessings
They have cheered like sunny weather,
But chiefly do they thank Him for
The fifty years together.

And Brainerd people, too, are glad
'Twas here they made their home,
And the memory'll live behind them,
Long years, when they are gone.

For in sickness they have ever gone
To try and cure the pain
And no one when in trouble
Ever went to them in vain.

And though fifty years is quite a time
We pray for many more,
Ere they must cross the waters
To that bright and happy shore.

Mrs. H. E. STEELE.

You Can Be Cured.

No. 11 Cedar Terrace,
HOT SPRINGS, ARK., April 28, 1903.
When I was first married I found that my strength and health were gradually diminishing. I became nervous and irritable, and was in bed a week and sometimes ten days of every month, and had intense bearing down pains. My husband had the best physician for me and I used his medicine for nearly four months, but I gradually grew worse, had less strength, and finally, I was unable to leave my bed at all.
A friend who was calling on me brought me a bottle of Wine of Cardui and was so loud in its praise that I told her that I would take it to please her.
I was surprised and pleased that before I had used the bottle I really felt better, so I kept on using it. Eight bottles brought back my lost health and strength, and I have not had a sick day in six months.

MUSIC AND DRAMA.

"THE VIRGINIAN".

"The Virginian," which comes to the Brainerd opera house on Thursday evening, Feb. 23, is thus reviewed in the Minneapolis Times:

"There is always a tendency on the part of play-goers, when a dramatized novel is the play, to dissect the different scenes and situations and compare them with those in the book. But the stage version of 'The Virginian' adheres pretty closely to the book, adding greatly to the enjoyment of those who are familiar with the story, and not injuring the dramatic qualities of the play.

"The play is full of dramatic situations. The climax in the third act, when the Virginian says good bye to his friend, Steve, is very strong. The scene is admirably carried out by Dustin Farnum, as the Virginian, and Guy Bates Post, who plays Steve. The strong climax to the last act is well carried out by Mr. Farnum, Frank Campeau, who plays Trampas, and the cowboys. Helen Holmes, who plays Mollie Woods, does a strong bit of acting.

"The Virginian" possesses a strong quartet of actors in Mr. Farnum, Mr.

Post, Mr. Campeau and Frank Monroe, who plays Honey Wiggins. Frank Nelson and Bennet Musson, as 'Nebraska' and 'Baldy,' do very good work, too. Helen Holmes is the only woman in the cast who gets much of a chance to act.

"The play is full of delicious little comedy scenes, too. Honey Wiggins' speech accompanying the cowboys' wedding gift, in the last act, is very funny. Mr. Farnum's love scenes with Miss Holmes are delicious bits. He seems to be just the man Owen Wister describes in the novel. The company is large and good; the play handsomely mounted and one of the best seen at the Metropolitan this season."

WILL FURTHER
EXPLORE CUYUNA

Pickands, Mather & Co. Has Taken Another Option on Land Held By Cuyler Adams

GIVEN CONTRACT FOR DRILLING

Options Given on Lands to a Firm Whose Name is Withheld at This Time

Anything now regarding the development of the Cuyuna ore range located in this county is of interest and the least intimation that such a firm as Pickands, Mather & Co. are interesting themselves is good news. The following from the News-Tribune, of Duluth, will be read with interest:

"Pickands, Mather & Co. the Cleveland iron and vessel concern, has taken from Cuyler Adams an option on another tract of land on the Cuyuna range in Crow Wing county. This makes two options that this firm has taken for the purpose of exploring for ore on the new iron range. The first was in 18-45-29, and the new option is for land in 10-45-20."

"The company has awarded a contract for drilling to Cole. McDonald of Duluth, and two drills are at work in section 8. It is learned also that W. C. Agnew and his associates have taken an option from Mr. Adams to explore a tract in the vicinity of the drilling now being done for Pickands, Mather & Co. Cole & McDonald are also doing the drilling for them."

"Mr. Adams has given options on two other tracts to an iron company, the name of which is withheld, to extend about six miles northeast of the operations being conducted by the Cleveland concern."

"The ore that has been found in the Cuyuna range was reached at a depth of from 60 to 160 feet. There is no outcropping on the lands to indicate any ore being there, and the presence of the mineral was detected by the use of the needle. The dip of the ore deposits appears to be sharper than on the Vermillion."

"If mines are developed on the Cuyuna range, the Northern Pacific road will fall into a good thing in the way of unexpected tonnage. The haul to Duluth is about 90 miles."

INTEREST INCREASES HERE.

With such reports as the above and the fact that several drills are at work east of here, interest in the Cuyuna range is increasing in Brainerd, and even the most conservative business men of the city have come to the conclusion that "there is something in it" after all. The fact that Pickands, Mather & Co. are interesting themselves is evidence enough for some of the business men to convince them that the claims originally made by Mr. Adams are founded on facts.

Much discussion has been heard regarding the purchase of the Jacob Tabert property east of here and the further attempt to buy up more of this land. When the first ore talk was made in Brainerd about a year and a half ago and when Mr. Tabert sold a part of his and for $800 an acre, interest seemed to center at this locality and the fact that further purchases of this land are being negotiated gives credence to the story that there are rich deposits of ore here. Mr. Tabert has been offered within a short time $75 an acre for the land, some eighty acres, which his house and buildings are located on, but it is understood that he has declined the offer, as he wants to sell all of the 160 acres he has left or nothing at all.

Many business men in Brainerd are working on schemes to acquire a lot of his land and thousands of acres have been taken up or options secured on them. In many cases mineral leases have been secured on land.

CLAIM A NEW FIND.

There was some excitement this morning over another discovery on section 5, 47, 29. It is claimed that while one of the Cole & McDonald drills was being worked here that a big find of lead and silver was made. It was found in such large quantities that a representative of the company was sent for and a sample of the mineral was taken and a representative has gone east to confer with capitalists who are also interested.

Dissolution of Partnership.

Notice is hereby given that the Lake Region Land Co., has this day dissolved by mutual consent, Eleanor Saunders, retiring and E. E. Bernard continuing the business, to pay all bills, and collect all moneys due said firm.

Signed
E. E. BERNARD.

WOMEN WHO WORK

Need Strong, Vigorous Nerves.

The life of women and girls who work is at best a hard one and even under the most favorable circumstances the results often show shattered nervous systems and broken down health. To meet the conditions required of her, to sustain the extra strain and nervous tension of duties never intended for her in the plan of nature, she must use every endeavor to preserve the vitality of her nerves and the regularity of the female functions. No remedy ever offered the world has accomplished the wonderful results obtained from the use of Dr. A. W. Chase's Nerve Pills. By supplying the nerves and blood with the elements necessary to their life and activity, they cause a steady increase of natural strength to both body and mind, brighten the eyes, clear the complexion and instead of a depressed, wornout feeling, there will be one of buoyancy and life. Dr. A. W. Chase's Nerve Pills make life worth living.

Mrs. Anna Doretz, of No. 919 Cleveland Avenue, Niagara Falls, N. Y., says: "I was overtaxed with work and completely tired out. I used to go to bed to think and worry and could not sleep as a result and I was nervous during the day. Hearing of the good effects of Dr. A. W. Chase's Nerve Pills in such affections I determined to try them. I got a box and they were a complete success. They toned me up quickly. I got over the nervousness and sleep finely and restful again. I am sure I am glad to recommend them." 50c a box at dealers or Dr. A. W. Chase Medicine Co., Buffalo, N. Y. Portrait and signature of A. W. Chase, M. D., on every package.

JOHN LARSON

E. C. and L. W. Thabes Buy Out the Well Known Flour and Feed Business

TAKE POSSESSION ON MARCH 1

Both Gentlemen are Well and Favorably Known in this City and County.

A deal was consummated today whereby the business of John Larson, the flour, feed and fuel man, was transferred to E. C. and L. W. Thabes, both of this city, and they will take charge the first of the month.

Mr. Larson has been in the flour and feed business in this city for a long time and by progressive management has built up a good establishment. It is understood that he has not yet decided what line of business he will engage in, but it is the hope of all his old patrons and friends in this city that he will continue to make Brainerd his home.

The Messrs. Thabes Bros. have been residents of this city nearly all their lives and are too well known for their reliability and integrity to require any extended comment. They have been contracting plasterers in this city for a long time and are considered among the very best workmen in northern Minnesota. They expect to continue the business bought of Mr. Larson along the same lines and will do all in their power to merit the patronage of all old customers as well as any new ones who will give them a trial.

A Pleasing Visitor.

All sort of publications come to an editor, but among the lot none is more keenly enjoyed than that right tidy little monthly Sports Afield—the February issue of which contains a capital assortment of good reading for the sportsman, the naturalist, the horseman, the dog fancier and lover of adventure generally. Prof. Kingery tells of a camping trip to the famed Pictured Rocks that border for many miles on the south shore of Lake Superior; Joe Cone has two "clinking good" poems; while all lovers of canoeing and ocean life will be glad to read "From Fresh Water to Salt" and "The Perils of Sword-fishing." If you have ever hunted the festive grey squirrel or the elusive grouse, you should read Dr. Steele's "A Day in Ellington Wood," and many a more pretentious article is not so interesting as Hamilton Percival's "Horse Breeding in New England." Tom Uzzell of the Missouri State University give a canoe-like description of the joys of archery—a neglected but entrancing sport; while Horace Wyndham's narrative of a sea voyage—"Steering from the Cape"—tells of some of the things one meets up with on board a tramp steamer. An Alaska hold-up story (crisp, but good), "Fox Hunting in the Tennessee Mountains," "In the Coeur d'Alene Country," "With the Ducks in Utah" and "A Trapping Trip to the Atonabee" (Ontario), together with a rarely equalled collection of shooting, fishing and kennel articles, combine to round out a magazine that is genuinely worth while. Fifteen cts. a copy. Your newsdealer can supply you; if not send direct to Sports Afield, 358 Dearborne St., Chicago, Ill.

McDonald are also doing the drilling for them.

"Mr. Adams has given options on two other tracts to an iron company, the name of which is withheld, to extend about six miles northeast of the operations being conducted by the Cleveland concern.

"The ore that has been found in the Cuyuna range was reached at a depth of from 60 to 160 feet. There is no outcropping on the lands to indicate any ore being there, and the presence of the mineral was detected by the use of the needle. The dip of the ore deposits appears to be sharper than on the Vermillion.

"If mines are developed on the Cuyuna range, the Northern Pacific road will fall into a good thing in the way of unexpected tonnage. The haul to Duluth is about 90 miles."

INTEREST INCREASES HERE.
With such reports as the above and the fact that several drills are at work east of here, interest in the Cuyuna range is increasing in Brainerd, and even the most conservative business men of the city have come to the conclusion that "there is something in it" after all. The fact that Pickands, Mather & Co. are interesting themselves is evidence enough for some of the business men to convince them that the claims originally made by Mr. Adams are founded on facts.

Much discussion has been heard regarding the purchase of the Jacob Tabert property east of here and the further attempt to buy up more of this land. When the first ore talk was made in Brainerd about a year and a half ago and when Mr. Tabert sold a part of his and for $800 an acre, interest seemed to center at this locality and the fact that further purchases of this land are being negotiated gives credence to the story that there are rich deposits of ore here. Mr. Tabert has been offered within a short time $75 an acre for the land, some eighty acres, which his house and buildings are located on, but it is understood that he has declined the offer, as he wants to sell all of the 160 acres he has left or nothing at all.

Many business men in Brainerd are working on schemes to acquire a lot of his land and thousands of acres have been taken up or options secured on them. In many cases mineral leases have been secured on land.

CLAIM A NEW FIND.

There was some excitement this morning over another discovery on section 5, 47, 29. It is claimed that while one of the Cole & McDonald drills was being worked here that a big find of lead and silver was made. It was found in such large quantities that a representative of the company was sent for and sample of the mineral was taken and a capitalistic has gone east to confer with capitalists who are also interested.

Dissolution of Partnership.

Notice is hereby given that the Lake Region Land Co., has this day dissolved by mutual consent, Eleanor Saunders, retiring and E. E. Bernard continuing the business, to pay all bills, and collect all moneys due said firm.

LEAVE BRAINERD

Firm of Bowe & Reimstad, After About Two Years Practice Here, Leaves For Other Points.

The law firm of Bowe & Reimstad will leave Brainerd, in fact the effects of the office, which has been located in the Bane block, have already been packed and shipped to Minneapolis. It is understood that the partnership will still exist, but the gentlemen will open offices at different points, Mr. Bowe locating at Minneapolis and Mr. Reimstad at North Branch.

Both gentlemen are well and favorably known in this city and were among the leading members of the Crow Wing county bar.

MILDRED.

Miss Peterson left Saturday for Pequot.

Will and R. A. Rice were at Pine River Sunday.

Editor Holman came up from Pine River Friday.

M. Gillespie and John Lizotte came down from Walker, Saturday.

The Sunday school will give an entertainment the evening of Washington's birthday.

Mr. and Mrs. John Batchelder who were visiting relative here, returned to their home at Pequot, Friday.

Rev. Ferris, who intended to deliver a sermon here Wednesday, could not be present. Rev. Wellington, of Pine River, therefore took charge of the pulpit.

Mr. and Mrs. F. Peabody royally entertained at their home last Saturday evening. The following were present: Mr. and Mrs. Batchelder, Mr. and Mrs. Casper, Mrs. Howard, Misses Marie, Ellen and Mora Paulsburg, Knebel and Klein and Messrs. Paulsburg, Strazell, Lamb, Klein and Stanley.

Card of Thanks

We wish to express our sincere thanks to the many friends who so kindly assisted during the long illness of our beloved sister and who extended sympathy after her death. Their kindnesses will be remembered for it is realized that much of their solicitude aided in making her last days on earth as happy as could be expected under the circumstances.

WOMEN WHO WORK

Need Strong, Vigorous Nerves.

The life of women and girls who work is at best a hard one and even under the most favorable circumstances the results often show shattered nervous systems and broken down health. To meet the conditions required of her, to sustain the extra strain and nervous tension of duties never intended for her in the plan of nature, she must use every endeavor to preserve the vitality of her nerves and the regularity of the female functions. No remedy ever offered the world has accomplished the wonderful results obtained from the use of Dr. A. W. Chase's Nerve Pills. By supplying the nerves and blood with the elements necessary to their life and activity, they cause a steady increase of natural strength to both body and mind, brighten the eyes, clear the complexion and instead of a depressed, wornout feeling, there will be one of buoyancy and life. Dr. A. W. Chase's Nerve Pills make life worth living.

Mrs. Anna Doretz, of No. 919 Cleveland Avenue, Niagara Falls, N. Y., says: "I was overtaxed with work and completely tired out. I used to go to bed to think and worry and could not sleep as a result and I was nervous during the day. Hearing of the good effects of Dr. A. W. Chase's Nerve Pills in such affections I determined to try them. I got a box and they were a complete success. They toned me up quickly. I got over the nervousness and sleep finely and restful again. I am sure I am glad to recommend them." 50c a box at dealers or Dr. A. W. Chase Medicine Co., Buffalo, N. Y. Portrait and signature of A. W. Chase, M. D., on every package.

HAS SOLD OUT

E. C. and L. W. Thabes Buy Out the Well Known Flour and Feed Business

TAKE POSSESSION ON MARCH 1

Both Gentlemen are Well and Favorably Known in this City and County.

A deal was consummated today whereby the business of John Larson, the flour, feed and fuel man, was transferred to E. C. and L. W. Thabes, both of this city, and they will take charge the first of the month.

Mr. Larson has been in the flour and feed business in this city for a long time and by progressive management has built up a good establishment. It is understood that he has not yet decided what line of business he will engage in, but it is the hope of all his old patrons and friends in this city that he will continue to make Brainerd his home.

The Messrs. Thabes Bros. have been residents of this city nearly all their lives and are too well known for their reliability and integrity to require any extended comment. They have been contracting plasterers in this city for a long time and are considered among the very best workmen in northern Minnesota. They expect to continue the business bought of Mr. Larson along the same lines and will do all in their power to merit the patronage of all old customers as well as any new ones who will give them a trial.

A Life At Stake.

If you but knew the splendid merit of Foley's Honey and Tar you would never be without it. A dose or two will prevent an attack of pneumonia or la grippe. It may save your life. H. P. Dunn & Co. mwf

A Pleasing Visitor.

All sort of publications come to an editor, but among the lot none is more keenly enjoyed than that right tidy little monthly Sports Afield—the February issue of which contains a capital assortment of good reading for the sportsman, the naturalist, the horseman, the dog fancier and lover of adventure generally. Prof. Kingery tells of a camping trip to the famed Pictured Rocks that border for many miles on the south shore of Lake Superior; Joe Cone has two "clinking good" poems; while all lovers of canoeing and ocean life will be glad to read "From Fresh Water to Salt" and "The Perils of Sword-fishing." If you have ever hunted the festive grey squirrel or the elusive grouse, you should read Dr. Steele's "A Day in Ellington Wood," and many a more pretentious article is not so interesting as Hamilton Percival's "Horse Breeding in New England." Tom Uzzell of the Missouri State University gives a canoe-like description of the joys of archery—a neglected but entrancing sport; while Horace Wyndham's narrative of a sea voyage—"Steering from the Cape"—tells of some of the things one meets up with on board a tramp steamer. An Alaska hold-up story (crisp, but good), "Fox Hunting in the Tennessee Mountains," "In the Coeur d'Alene Country," "With the Ducks in Utah" and "A Trapping Trip to the Atonabee" (Ontario), together with a rarely equalled collection of shooting, fishing and kennel articles, combine to round out a magazine that is genuinely worth while. Fifteen cts. a copy. Your newsdealer can supply you; if not send direct to Sports Afield, 358 Dearborn St., Chicago, Ill.

Dr. J. L. Camp Left for St. Paul Last Night to Meet With Walker Sanitarium Commission

Dr. J. L. Camp left last night for St. Paul where he will attend a meeting today of the commission appointed some years ago to arrange for a sanitarium for consumptives at Walker. This commission has made a study of the question and has visited other institutions throughout the country, has recommended a site at Walker and has submitted general plans for the buildings. The meeting at St. Paul at this time will be with the state board of control and the plans of the buildings as prepared by the architects will be gone over and it is hoped the board of control will approve the same.

IS YOUR BOY A DRUNKARD?

Help Him by Orrine to Overcome His Craving—Can be Given Secretly.

If your boy or husband has fallen a victim to the drink habit, endangering his future happiness and prosperity, do not delay a moment in helping him to overcome his craving for drink. Will-power alone cannot cure the liquor habit, for drunkenness is a disease and the desire for liquor must be satisfied.

Orrine, the wonderful specific for the cure of the whiskey and beer habit, removes all craving for drink with a few days' use and effects a permanent and lasting cure. It comes in two forms. No. 1 is perfectly colorless, tasteless and odorless, and can be given in tea, coffee or food without the patient's knowledge, but we recommend No. 2, in pill form, to be used by those who desire to free themselves from the terrible mastery of drink. The cost of either form is $1 a box. Orrine, the only guaranteed cure for the drink habit, is sold and recommended by H. P. Dunn & Co., Central Drug Store, National Bank Block, Brainerd, Minn.

To Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Metcalf.

Just fifty years ago today
She stood a blushing bride,
Oh, surely Time forgot her,
In his swiftly whirling tide.
So thinks the bridegroom, as he looks
In her sweet face tonight.
The only change that he can see,
The gold has turned to white.
The golden locks where sunshine
Once seemed to come and go,
Now cluster on her forehead
As white as drifting snow.

And this is all the work that Time
Seems able to have done.
It proves that thoughts, pure, holy
Thoughts,
Will keep the face so young.

They've had their cares and trials, too,
As all must have on earth,
But never once did they forget
The Loving Saviour's birth.
And to Him in every trouble
They always cried aloud,
And every time, the sunshine
Creeped out behind the cloud.

They've lived to see their children
All settled well in life.
The boys—proud happy fathers,
The girl—a loving wife.

And they thank Him for these blessings
They have cheered like sunny weather,
But chiefly do they thank Him for
The fifty years together.

And Brainerd people, too, are glad
'Twas here they made their home,
And the memory'll live behind them,
Long years, when they are gone.

For in sickness they have ever gone
To try and cure the pain
And no one when in trouble
Ever went to them in vain.

And though fifty years is quite a time
We pray for many more,
Ere they must cross the waters
To that bright and happy shore.

Mrs. H. E. STEELE.

You Can Be Cured.

No. 11 Cedar Terrace,
Hort. Bureau, Ark., April 28, 1905.

When I was first married I found that my strength and health were gradually diminishing. I became nervous and irritable, and was in bed a week and sometimes ten days of every month, and had intense bearing down pains. My husband had the best physician for me and I used his medicine for nearly four months, but I gradually grew worse, had less strength, and finally, I was unable to leave my bed at all.
A friend who was calling on me brought me a bottle of Wine of Cardui and was so loud in its praise that I told her that I would take it to please her.
I was surprised and pleased that before I had used the bottle I really felt better, so I kept on using it. Eight bottles brought back my lost health and strength, and I have not had a sick day in six months.

WINE OF CARDUI

Mrs. Finnegan had little hope of relief because she knew that every time she had those spells of menstrual suffering with attendant bearing down pains she was weaker. And every month the pain was growing more severe.

But Mrs. Finnegan was cured by Wine of Cardui. She is now so well that there are few women who would not be glad to have the health she has. And any woman who has those dreaded bearing down pains can have the same relief.

You can be free from menstrual irregularities if you take this pure vegetable wine. Why don't you take it when you see what it has done for others? Secure a bottle of Wine of Cardui today.

MUSIC AND DRAMA.

"THE VIRGINIAN".

"The Virginian," which comes to the Brainerd opera house on Thursday evening, Feb. 23, is thus reviewed in the Minneapolis Times:

"There is always a tendency on the part of play-goers, when a dramatized novel is the play, to dissect the different scenes and situations and compare them with those in the book. But the stage version of 'The Virginian' adheres pretty closely to the book, adding greatly to the enjoyment of those who are familiar with the story, and not injuring the dramatic qualities of the play.

"The play is full of dramatic situations. The climax in the third act, when the Virginian says good bye to his friend, Steve, is very strong. The scene is admirably carried out by Dustin Farnum, as the Virginian, and Guy Bates Post, who plays Steve. The strong climax to the last act is well carried out by Mr. Farnum, Frank Campeau, who plays Trampas, and the cowboys. Helen Holmes, who plays Mollie Woods, does a strong bit of acting.

"The Virginian" possesses a strong quartet of actors in Mr. Farnum, Mr.

Post, Mr. Campeau and Frank Monroe, who plays Honey Wiggin. Frank Nelson and Bennet Mussen, as 'Nebraska' and 'Baldy,' do very good work, too. Helen Holmes is the only woman in the cast who gets much of a chance to act.

"The play is full of delicious little comedy scenes, too. Honey Wiggin's comedy accompanying the cowboys' wedding gift, in the last act, is very funny. Mr. Farnum's love scenes with Miss Holmes are delicious bits. He seems to be just the man Owen Wister describes in the novel. The company is large and good; the play handsomely mounted and one of the best seen at the Metropolitan this season."

IN STATE OF COLLAPSE

MRS. KATE EDWARDS SPENDS
HER TIME IN MOANING AND
SOBBING IN PRISON.

UNABLE TO MAKE AFFIDAVIT

CONDEMNED WOMAN IS TOO ILL
TO APPEAL TO THE STATE
BOARD OF PARDONS.

Reading, Pa., Feb. 15.—Mrs. Kate Edwards, who, with Samuel Greason, the negro, is to be hanged here on Thursday for the murder of her husband, unless the board of pardons intervenes, is in a state of collapse. The taking of her deposition for presentation to the board of pardons has been postponed owing to her condition. She was too weak to leave her cell and made no affidavit. Mrs. Edwards appears to have given up all hope. She eats nothing and spends her time moaning and sobbing, asking to be left to herself.

Greason's deposition was taken during the day. It reviews his case, protests his innocence and asks for a full pardon. The application is based on Mrs. Edwards' confession exonerating Greason from complicity in the murder. It will be presented by the negro's counsel during the day.

District Attorney Kutz has issued a statement announcing that he believes Greason innocent and will advocate his pardon.

When Rev. Stephen Scheltzer, Mrs. Edwards' spiritual advisor, called on the condemned woman during the day she confessed to him that she murdered her husband, and that Greason was in no way implicated in the crime. She went over the entire story of the night of the murder in practically the same manner as it is told in her published confession.

A monster petition urging the commutation of the woman's sentence to life imprisonment was presented to Governor Pennypacker at Harrisburg by F. L. Boalt, Miss Catherine Pantland, Mrs. Anna Finch and Mrs. Rudolph Kiepler of Cleveland. The petition contains the signatures of 275,000 men and women of Ohio. The governor promised to refer the petition to the board of pardons.

Sheriff Sasaman will soon begin the erection of the scaffold if the board of pardons refuses to interfere. It will be located in the southern jail yard and Mrs. Edwards and Greason, who are to be executed at the same time, will walk directly out of the prison door onto the scaffold.

MONEY FOR THE NORTHWEST.

Appropriated by Two Bills Reported to the House.

Washington, Feb. 15.—The omnibus public building bill, carrying authorization for new public buildings and the purchase of sites amounting to $9,499,000 was reported to the house during the day by Chairman Gillett of the house committee. It makes the following authorizations for new buildings, including sites and for increases in cost of buildings already authorized:

Minnesota—Crookston, $50,000; New Ulm, $30,000; St. Paul, $40,000.

South Dakota—Mitchell, $75,000; Watertown, $75,000.

Wisconsin—Chippewa Falls, $70,000.

In the sundry service bill the appropriations for river and harbor work under contract include the following items: Mississippi river, from mouth of the Missouri river to St. Paul, $400,000; middle and west Neeshib channel, St. Mary's river, $1,200,000.

The items in the bill for public buildings, already contracted for, include: Deadwood, S. D., $50,000; Grand Forks, N. D., $73,750; Pierre, S. D., $60,000; Superior, Wis., $40,000; Waterloo, Ia., $62,500; Yankton, S. D., $30,000.

SEARCH FOR JONES' REMAINS.

Ambassador Porter Begins Quest in Cemetery at Paris.

Washington, Feb. 15.—Ambassador Porter already has justified the faith he expressed to the state department in his ability to find some trace of the remains of John Paul Jones. He has cabled the state department from Paris as follows:

"Sunk shaft; found rows of graves undisturbed at a depth of seventeen feet."

This refers to the preliminary examination which the ambassador has been making of the ground which once formed the site of the cemetery to which the remains of John Paul Jones were traced.

Mr. Porter who was himself a civil engineer has projected a plan for searching the cemetery site for the remains of John Paul Jones, by means of a system of shafts and lateral drifts and tunnels whereby the inquiry can be prosecuted without involving the heavy expense of purchasing and demolishing the houses now on the site of the cemetery.

Taken From Stalled Train.

Detroit, Mich., Feb. 15.—The passengers of a Pere Marquette train which became stalled ten miles from South Haven were transferred to sleighs and driven to South Haven through a blizzard, with the mercury at 16 below. Two of them were somewhat frostbitten.

OWEN KELLY UNDER ARREST.

Former Wealthy Philadelphian Caught at Los Angeles, Cal.

Los Angeles, Cal., Feb. 15.—Owen Kelly, a former wealthy grocer of Philadelphia, now wanted there for the alleged embezzlement of a sum said to exceed $50,000, is under arrest in this city. Kelly was arrested on one of the main streets at night by Chief of Police Hammill, and Chief of Detectives Bradish, who recognized him from printed descriptions sent out at the time of his disappearance.

Kelly left Boston last October by steamer for Europe. His destination was unknown, but he was followed across the Atlantic, thence across Europe, where trace of him was lost. He finally returned to this country, landing at San Francisco. His presence in California became known through information from the East. Kelly talked freely of his alleged defalcations and admitted that he owed probably $50,000 to Philadelphia relatives and friends, which sum he said he lost in speculations after having squandered his own fortune in the same way. He stated he would return to Philadelphia without a requisition.

IDENTIFIED AS HOFFMAN.

Hoch Said to Have Been in Employ of H. H. Holmes.

Chicago, Feb. 15.—The police are inclined to put more faith in a theory that Johann Hoch is identical with Jake Hoffman, janitor of the flat building owned by the wholesale murderer, H. H. Holmes, in 1893. Three persons have now positively identified Hoch as Hoffman.

Aged Woman Ends Her Life.

Belleville, Ill., Feb. 15.—The dead and frozen body of Mrs. Margaretha Koehr, aged fifty-five years, an inmate of St. Vincent's hospital, was found during the day in Walnut Hill cemetery, near her son's grave. A cup still containing some carbolic acid, and burns on her lips and tongue showed the cause of her death. Mrs. Koehr had been missing since last Thursday.

Minneapolis Man Suicides.

Minneapolis, Feb. 15.—Emil Cussler, aged twenty-eight, committed suicide by shooting himself in the head during the afternoon in the yards of the Northwestern Fuel company, at the west end of the steel arch bridge, near the union depot. Cussler was afflicted with ear trouble and the pain and fear of deafness are thought to have driven him insane.

Confidence in Senator Warren.

Cheyenne, Wyo., Feb. 15.—The two houses of the legislature adopted resolutions during the day expressing "confidence in the wisdom and integrity of Senator Warren." This action was taken in view of the recent attempt to introduce "certain malicious resolutions" in the Wyoming senate reflecting on the character and services of Mr. Warren.

James U. Sammis, internal revenue collector for the Northern district of Iowa, has been requested to resign.

Dr. William R. Harper, president of the University of Chicago, will undergo another operation within a week.

A bill giving women the right to vote for presidential electors was killed by the Kansas senate by a vote of 60 to 29.

The coal strike in Belgium shows signs of collapsing, the resumption of work becoming more general in different districts.

The condition of Bishop W. E. McLaren of the Protestant Episcopal diocese of Chicago, who has been ill in New York city for some time, is considerably worse. The bishop is failing fast and the end is said to be only a question of a few days.

PRESENT TO WARSHIP

STATE WILL SPEND TEN THOUSAND DOLLARS ON ONE FOR THE MINNESOTA.

HOUSE EXPURGATES CRITICISM OF VAN SANT FROM REPORT OF A COMMITTEE.

St. Paul, Feb. 15.—Minnesota will spend $10,000 on a suitable souvenir for the battleship Minnesota, which is to be launched at Newport News, April 8. A resolution for an appropriation of that amount was introduced in the senate Tuesday and unanimously adopted. It recites that, as the United States has built a magnificent fighting ship and named it in honor of the North Star state, it was fitting that a souvenir of this honor should be placed on the ship as a gift from the state. A committee of three senators is to be named with Lieutenant Governor Jones, to decide upon the form the souvenir shall take. It is customary in cases of this kind for the gift to take the form of a solid silver set to be used on gala occasions.

A similar resolution was introduced in the house. It was referred to the committee on appropriations.

The senate refused to adjourn till Thursday, in spite of the fact that today will be largely devoted by committees to inspection trips, and the attendance is likely to be slim in consequence.

The state public school committee will visit that institution at Owatonna and the state training school committee will go to the institution at Red Wing. The normal school committee consisting of the delegation from Ramsey, Hennepin and St. Louis counties, will visit the sick and crippled children's ward of the city hospital of St. Paul.

Three Bills Passed.

Three bills were passed by the senate. One was Senator Thompson's bill to appropriate $50,000 to pay the deficiency in the state aid to high schools for the years 1903 and 1904. Another was Senator Schain's bill, providing for a $10,000 appropriation for school district libraries and the third was Senator Calhoun's bill, providing for the diverting of the channel of Bassett's creek so as to make it flow through the Lake of the Isles, Lake Calhoun and Cedar Lake.

Senator Stephens' bill for an act to exempt all property of G. A. R. posts from any taxation, except local improvement assessments, was passed and then reconsidered and re-referred to the judiciary committee.

Senator Thorpe introduced a bill amending the gross earnings tax law so far as it relates to telephone companies, requiring those whose lines begin and end in any one city, town or village to pay a 3 per cent gross earnings tax to the county instead of the state, as at present.

Senator McNamee introduced a bill allowing villages having charters to amend the same, upon petition of five per cent of the legal voters to the charter board.

The senate adopted a resolution urging the Minnesota delegation in congress to support the legislation asked by the Upper Mississippi River Improvement association, relative to deepening the channel of the river.

EXPURGATED FROM THE REPORT.

House Eliminates Criticism of Van Sant and Johnson.

The house Tuesday promptly expurgated from the report of the committee on accounts and expenditures, criticism directed at ex-Governor Van Sant and ex-Public Examiner Johnson for an alleged failure to report to former legislatures that former Insurance Commissioner Dearth had a gold mine in his office.

The report concluded with a recommendation that the commissioner's fees be abolished and the commissioner given a $5,000 salary instead. Mr. Dearth is said to have taken in over $62,000 in fees in four years.

A bill extending the protective limit for Japanese or Chinese pheasants to 1915, and General Flower's bill, making the bribing of legislators and legislators-elect a felony, were passed.

Corporations or so-called trusts doing business in Minnesota will have a hard time of it if a bill offered jointly in the house by Representatives A. J. Rockne and T. T. Osthun becomes a law.

It is an anti-trust measure, without any reserving clauses, and puts every business combination in the state on the defensive.

The bill construes every trust or combination in restraint of trade inimical to the interests of the state, and therefore illegal. Every person involved is construed as compounding or committing a felony.

Heavy punishment is provided for the offense, and the courts, in their judgment, may forfeit such felon's property in the state.

June 30, 1905, is the date when this bill, if it passes, becomes operative, and, preceding its enactment, all corporations and companies wishing to do business or continue such in Minnesota must sign a statement announcing their willingness to submit to its requirements.

The bill covers every phase of the so-called trust situation, and for its intent has the suppression of everything that would be contrary to legitimate business or in restraint of trade.

The White of an Egg.

The white of an egg is made up of little cells filled with albumen. By beating the white these cells are ruptured, and oxygen from the air is inclosed, which gives the white and light appearance to beaten eggs. The white of a stale egg will not inclose as much oxygen, will not be as light and as easily digested as that of the fresh egg and, of course, less valuable. The importance of beating the egg in cold,

pure air is readily seen.

IN STATE OF COLLAPSE

MRS. KATE EDWARDS SPENDS

HER TIME IN MOANING AND

SOBBING IN PRISON.

UNABLE TO MAKE AFFIDAVIT

CONDEMNED WOMAN IS TOO ILL

TO APPEAL TO THE STATE

BOARD OF PARDONS.

Reading, Pa., Feb. 15.—Mrs. Kate Edwards, who, with Samuel Greason, the negro, is to be hanged here on Thursday for the murder of her husband, unless the board of pardons intervenes, is in a state of collapse. The taking of her deposition for presentation to the board of pardons has been postponed owing to her condition. She was too weak to leave her cell and made no affidavit. Mrs. Edwards appears to have given up all hope. She eats nothing and spends her time moaning and sobbing, asking to be left to herself.

Greason's deposition was taken during the day. It reviews his case, protests his innocence and asks for a full pardon. The application is based on Mrs. Edwards' confession exonerating Greason from complicity in the murder. It will be presented by the negro's counsel during the day.

District Attorney Kutz has issued a statement announcing that he believes Greason innocent and will advocate his pardon.

When Rev. Stephen Scheitzer, Mrs. Edwards' spiritual advisor, called on the condemned woman during the day she confessed to him that she murdered her husband, and that Greason was in no way implicated in the crime. She went over the entire story of the night of the murder in practically the same manner as it is told in her published confession.

A monster petition urging the commutation of the woman's sentence to life imprisonment was presented to Governor Pennypacker at Harrisburg by P. L. Boalt, Miss Catherine Pantland, Mrs. Anna Finch and Mrs. Rudolph Keipfer of Cleveland. The petition contains the signatures of 275,000 men and women of Ohio. The governor promised to refer the petition to the board of pardons.

Sheriff Sasaman will soon begin the erection of the scaffold if the board of pardons refuses to interfere. It will be located in the southern jail yard and Mrs. Edwards and Greason, who are to be executed at the same time, will walk directly out of the prison door onto the scaffold.

MONEY FOR THE NORTHWEST.

Appropriated by Two Bills Reported to the House.

Washington, Feb. 15.—The omnibus public building bill, carrying authorization for new public buildings and the purchase of sites amounting to $9,499,000 was reported to the house during the day by Chairman Gillett of the house committee. It makes the following authorizations for new buildings, including sites and for increases in cost of buildings already authorized:

Minnesota—Crookston, $50,000; New

Ulm, $30,000; St. Paul, $40,000.

South Dakota—Mitchell, $75,000;

Watertown, $75,000.

Wisconsin—Chippewa Falls, $70,000.

In the sundry service bill the appropriations for river and harbor work under contract include the following items: Mississippi river, from mouth of the Missouri river to St. Paul, $400,000; middle and west Neeshish channel, St. Mary's river, $1,200,000.

The items in the bill for public buildings, already contracted for, include: Deadwood, S. D., $50,000; Grand Forks, N. D., $73,750; Pierre, S. D., $60,000; Superior, Wis., $40,000; Watertown, Ia., $62,500; Yankton, S. D., $30,000.

SEARCH FOR JONES' REMAINS.

Ambassador Porter Begins Quest in Cemetery at Paris.

Washington, Feb. 15.—Ambassador Porter already has justified the faith he expressed to the state department in his ability to find some trace of the remains of John Paul Jones. He has cabled the state department from Paris as follows:

"Sunk shaft; found rows of graves undisturbed at a depth of seventeen feet."

This refers to the preliminary examination which the ambassador has been making of the ground which once formed the site of the cemetery to which the remains of John Paul Jones were traced.

Mr. Porter who was himself a civil engineer has projected a plan for searching the cemetery site for the remains of John Paul Jones, by means of a system of shafts and lateral drifts and tunnels whereby the inquiry can be prosecuted without involving the heavy expense of purchasing and demolishing the houses now on the site of the cemetery.

Taken From Stalled Train.

Detroit, Mich., Feb. 15.—The passengers of a Pere Marquette train which became stalled ten miles from South Haven were transferred to sleighs and driven to South Haven through a blizzard, with the mercury at 16 below. Two of them were somewhat frostbitten.

OWEN KELLY UNDER ARREST.

Former Wealthy Philadelphian Caught at Los Angeles, Cal.

Los Angeles, Cal., Feb. 15.—Owen Kelly, a former wealthy grocer of Philadelphia, now wanted there for the alleged embezzlement of a sum said to exceed $50,000, is under arrest in this city. Kelly was arrested on one of the main streets at night by Chief of Police Hammill, and Chief of Detectives Bradish, who recognized him from printed descriptions sent out at the time of his disappearance.

Kelly left Boston last October by steamer for Europe. His destination was unknown, but he was followed across the Atlantic, thence across Europe, where trace of him was lost. He finally returned to this country, landing at San Francisco. His presence in California became known through information from the East. Kelly talked freely of his alleged defalcations and admitted that he owed probably $50,000 to Philadelphia relatives and friends, which sum he said he lost in speculations after having squandered his own fortune in the same way. He stated he would return to Philadelphia without a requisition.

IDENTIFIED AS HOFFMAN.

Hoch Said to Have Been in Employ of H. H. Holmes.

Chicago, Feb. 15.—The police are inclined to put more faith in a theory that Johann Hoch is identical with Jake Hoffman, janitor of the flat building owned by the wholesale murderer, H. H. Holmes, in 1893. Three persons have now positively identified Hoch as Hoffman.

Aged Woman Ends Her Life.

Belleville, Ill., Feb. 15.—The dead and frozen body of Mrs. Margaret Koehr, aged fifty-five years, an inmate of St. Vincent's hospital, was found during the day in Walnut Hill cemetery, near her son's grave. A cup still containing some carbolic acid, and burns on her lips and tongue showed the cause of her death. Mrs. Koehr had been missing since last Thursday.

Minneapolis Man Suicides.

Minneapolis, Feb. 15.—Emil Cussler, aged twenty-eight, committed suicide by shooting himself in the head during the afternoon in the yards of the Northwestern Fuel company, at the west end of the steel arch bridge, near the union depot. Cussler was afflicted with ear trouble and the pain and fear of deafness are thought to have driven him insane.

Confidence in Senator Warren.

Cheyenne, Wyo., Feb. 15.—The two houses of the legislature adopted resolutions during the day expressing "confidence in the wisdom and integrity of Senator Warren." This action was taken in view of the recent attempt to introduce "certain malicious resolutions" in the Wyoming senate reflecting on the character and services of Mr. Warren.

TELEGRAPHIC BREVITIES.

James U. Sammis, internal revenue collector for the Northern district of Iowa, has been requested to resign.

Dr. William R. Harper, president of the University of Chicago, will undergo another operation within a week.

A bill giving women the right to vote for presidential electors was killed by the Kansas senate by a vote of 60 to 29.

The coal strike in Belgium shows signs of collapsing, the resumption of work becoming more general in different districts.

The condition of Bishop W. E. McLaren of the Protestant Episcopal diocese of Chicago, who has been ill in New York city for some time, is considerably worse. The bishop is failing fast and the end is said to be only a question of a few days.

STATE WILL SPEND TEN THOU-

SAND DOLLARS ON ONE FOR THE MINNESOTA.

HOUSE EXPURGATES CRITICISM

OF VAN SANT FROM REPORT

OF A COMMITTEE.

St. Paul, Feb. 15.—Minnesota will spend $10,000 on a suitable souvenir for the battleship Minnesota, which is to be launched at Newport News, April 8. A resolution for an appropriation of that amount was introduced in the senate Tuesday and unanimously adopted. It recites that, as the United States has built a magnificent fighting ship and named it in honor of the North Star state, it was fitting that a souvenir of this honor should be placed on the ship as a gift from the state. A committee of three senators is to be named with Lieutenant Governor Jones, to decide upon the form the souvenir shall take. It is customary in cases of this kind for the gift to take the form of a solid silver set to be used on gala occasions.

A similar resolution was introduced in the house. It was referred to the committee on appropriations.

The senate refused to adjourn till Thursday, in spite of the fact that today will be largely devoted by committees to inspection trips, and the attendance is likely to be slim in consequence.

The state public school committee will visit that institution at Owatonna and the state training school committee will go to the institution at Red Wing. The normal school committee consisting of the delegation from Ramsey, Hennepin and St. Louis counties, will visit the sick and crippled children's ward of the city hospital of St. Paul.

Three Bills Passed.

Three bills were passed by the senate. One was Senator Thompson's bill to appropriate $50,000 to pay the deficiency in the state aid to high schools for the years 1903 and 1904. Another was Senator Schain's bill, providing for a $10,000 appropriation for school district libraries and the third was Senator Calhoun's bill, providing for the diverting of the channel of Bassett's creek so as to make it flow through the Lake of the Isles, Lake Calhoun and Cedar Lake.

Senator Stephens' bill for an act to exempt all property of G. A. R. posts from any taxation, except local improvement assessments, was passed and then reconsidered and re-referred to the judiciary committee.

Senator Thorpe introduced a bill amending the gross earnings tax law so far as it relates to telephone companies, requiring those whose lines begin and end in any one city, town or village to pay a 3 per cent gross earnings tax to the county instead of the state, as at present.

Senator McNamee introduced a bill allowing villages having charters to amend the same, upon petition of five per cent of the legal voters to the charter board.

The senate adopted a resolution urging the Minnesota delegation in congress to support the legislation asked by the Upper Mississippi River Improvement association, relative to deepening the channel of the river.

EXPURGATED FROM THE REPORT.

House Eliminates Criticism of Van Sant and Johnson.

The house Tuesday promptly expurgated from the report of the committee on accounts and expenditures, criticism directed at ex-Governor Van Sant and ex-Public Examiner Johnson for an alleged failure to report to former legislatures that Former Insurance Commissioner Dearth had a gold mine in his office.

The report concluded with a recommendation that the commissioner's fees be abolished and the commissioner given a $5,000 salary instead. Mr. Dearth is said to have taken in over $63,000 in fees in four years. A bill extending the protective limit for Japanese or Chinese pleases to 1915, and General Flower's bill, making the bribing of legislators and legislators-elect a felony, were passed.

Corporations or so-called trusts doing business in Minnesota will have a hard time of it if a bill offered jointly in the house by Representatives A. J. Rockne and T. T. Ofstun becomes a law.

It is an anti-trust measure, without any reserving clauses, and puts every business combination in the state on the defensive.

The bill construes every trust or combination in restraint of trade inimical to the interests of the state, and therefore illegal. Every person involved is construed as compounding or committing a felony.

Heavy punishment is provided for the offense, and the courts, in their judgment, may forfeit such felon's property in the state.

June 30, 1905, is the date when this bill, if it passes, becomes operative, and, preceding its enactment, all corporations and companies wishing to do business or continue such in Minnesota must sign a statement announcing their willingness to submit to its requirements.

The bill covers every phase of the so-called trust situation, and for its intent has the suppression of everything that would be contrary to legitimate business or in restraint of trade.

The White of an Egg.

The white of an egg is made up of little cells filled with albumen.

By beating the white these cells are ruptured, and oxygen from the air is inclosed, which gives the white and light appearance to beaten eggs. The white of a stale egg will not inclose as much oxygen, will not be as light and as easily digested as that of the fresh egg, and, of course, less valuable.

The importance of beating the egg in cold, pure air is readily seen.

IN STATE OF COLLAPSE

MRS. KATE EDWARDS SPENDS HER TIME IN MOANING AND SOBING IN PRISON.

UNABLE TO MAKE AFFIDAVIT

CONDEMNED WOMAN IS TOO ILL

TO APPEAL TO THE STATE BOARD OF PARDONS.

Reading, Pa., Feb. 15.—Mrs. Kate Edwards, who, with Samuel Greason, the negro, is to be hanged here on Thursday for the murder of her husband, unless the board of pardons intervenes, is in a state of collapse. The taking of her deposition for presentation to the board of pardons has been postponed owing to her condition. She was too weak to leave her cell and made no affidavit. Mrs. Edwards appears to have given up all hope. She eats nothing and spends her time moaning and sobbing, asking to be left to herself.

Greason's deposition was taken during the day. It reviews his case, protests his innocence and asks for a full pardon. The application is based on Mrs. Edwards' confession exonerating Greason from complicity in the murder. It will be presented by the negro's counsel during the day.

District Attorney Kutz has issued a statement announcing that he believes Greason innocent and will advocate his pardon.

When Rev. Stephen Scheitzer, Mrs. Edwards' spiritual advisor, called on the condemned woman during the day she confessed to him that she murdered her husband, and that Greason was in no way implicated in the crime. She went over the entire story of the night of the murder in practically the same manner as it is told in her published confession.

A monster petition urging the commutation of the woman's sentence to life imprisonment was presented to Governor Pennypacker at Harrisburg by F. L. Boalt, Miss Catherine Pantland, Mrs. Anna Finch and Mrs. Rudolph Kelpfer of Cleveland. The petition contains the signatures of 275,000 men and women of Ohio. The governor promised to refer the petition to the board of pardons.

Sheriff Sasaman will soon begin the erection of the scaffold if the board of pardons refuses to interfere. It will be located in the southern jail yard and Mrs. Edwards and Greason, who are to be executed at the same time, will walk directly out of the prison door onto the scaffold.

MONEY FOR THE NORTHWEST.

Appropriated by Two Bills Reported to the House.

Washington, Feb. 15.—The omnibus public building bill, carrying authorization for new public buildings and the purchase of sites amounting to $9,499,000 was reported to the house during the day by Chairman Gillett of the house committee. It makes the following authorizations for new buildings, including sites and for increases in cost of buildings already authorized:

Minnesota—Crookston, $50,000; New Ulm, $20,000; St. Paul, $40,000.
South Dakota—Mitchell, $75,000; Watertown, $75,000.
Wisconsin—Chippewa Falls, $70,000.

In the sundry service bill the appropriations for river and harbor work under contract include the following items: Mississippi river, from mouth of the Missouri river to St. Paul, $400,000; middle and west Nebraska channel, St. Mary's river, $1,200,000.

The items in the bill for public buildings, already contracted for, include: Deadwood, S. D., $50,000; Grand Forks, N. D., $73,750; Pierre, S. D., $60,000; Superior, Wis., $40,000; Waterloo, Ia., $62,500; Yankton, S. D., $30,000.

SEARCH FOR JONES' REMAINS.

Ambassador Porter Begins Quest in Cemetery at Paris.

Washington, Feb. 15.—Ambassador Porter already has justified the faith he expressed to the state department in his ability to find some trace of the remains of John Paul Jones. He has cabled the state department from Paris as follows:

"Sunk shaft; found rows of graves undisturbed at a depth of seventeen feet."

This refers to the preliminary examination which the ambassador has been making of the ground which once formed the site of the cemetery to which the remains of John Paul Jones were traced.

Mr. Porter who was himself a civil engineer has projected a plan for searching the cemetery site for the remains of John Paul Jones, by means of a system of shafts and lateral drifts and tunnels whereby the inquiry can be prosecuted without involving the heavy expense of purchasing and demolishing the houses now on the site of the cemetery.

Taken From Stalled Train.

Detroit, Mich., Feb. 15.—The passengers of a Pere Marquette train which became stalled ten miles from South Haven were transferred to sleighs and driven to South Haven through a blizzard, with the mercury at 16 below. Two of them were somewhat frostbitten.

OWEN KELLY UNDER ARREST.

Former Wealthy Philadelphian Caught at Los Angeles, Cal.

Los Angeles, Cal., Feb. 15.—Owen Kelly, a former wealthy grocer of Philadelphia, now wanted there for the alleged embezzlement of a sum said to exceed $50,000, is under arrest in this city. Kelly was arrested on one of the main streets at night by Chief of Police Hammill, and Chief of Detectives Bradish, who recognized him from printed descriptions sent out at the time of his disappearance.

Kelly left Boston last October by steamer for Europe. His destination was unknown, but he was followed across the Atlantic, thence across Europe, where trace of him was lost. He finally returned to this country, landing at San Francisco. His presence in California became known through information from the East. Kelly talked freely of his alleged defalcations and admitted that he owed probably $50,000 to Philadelphia relatives and friends, which sum he said he lost in speculations after having squandered his own fortune in the same way. He stated he would return to Philadelphia without a requisition.

IDENTIFIED AS HOFFMAN.

Hoch Said to Have Been in Employ of H. H. Holmes.

Chicago, Feb. 15.—The police are inclined to put more faith in a theory that Johann Hoch is identical with Jake Hoffman, janitor of the flat building owned by the wholesale murderer, H. H. Holmes, in 1893. Three persons have now positively identified Hoch as Hoffman.

Aged Woman Ends Her Life.

Bellefonte, Ill., Feb. 15.—The dead and frozen body of Mrs. Margaretha Koehr, aged fifty-five years, an inmate of St. Vincent's hospital, was found during the day in Walnut Hill cemetery, near her son's grave. A cup still containing some carbolic acid, and burns on her lips and tongue showed the cause of her death. Mrs. Koehr had been missing since last Thursday.

Minneapolis Man Suicides.

Minneapolis, Feb. 15.—Emil Cussler, aged twenty-eight, committed suicide by shooting himself in the head during the afternoon in the yards of the Northwestern Fuel company, at the west end of the steel arch bridge, near the union depot. Cussler was afflicted with ear trouble and the pain and fear of deafness are thought to have driven him insane.

Confidence in Senator Warren.

Cheyenne, Wyo., Feb. 15.—The two houses of the legislature adopted resolutions during the day expressing "confidence in the wisdom and integrity of Senator Warren." This action was taken in view of the recent attempt to introduce "certain malicious resolutions" in the Wyoming senate reflecting on the character and services of Mr. Warren.

TELEGRAPHIC BREVITIES.

James U. Sammis, internal revenue collector for the Northern district of Iowa, has been requested to resign.

Dr. William R. Harper, president of the University of Chicago, will undergo another operation within a week.

A bill giving women the right to vote for presidential electors was killed by the Kansas senate by a vote of 60 to 29.

The coal strike in Belgium shows signs of collapsing, the resumption of work becoming more general in different districts.

The condition of Bishop W. E. McLaren of the Protestant Episcopal diocese of Chicago, who has been ill in New York city for some time, is considerably worse. The bishop is falling fast and the end is said to be only a question of a few days.

You tax the kidneys—overwork them. They can't keep up the continual strain. The back gives out—it aches and pains; Urinary troubles set in. Don't wait longer—take Doan's Kidney Pills.

Brainerd people tell you how they act. Oscar Opgard, employed in the N. P. shops and living at 611 Tenth St. S., Brainerd, Minn., says: "I speak from experience when I say that Doan's Kidney Pills are most effective in removing backache and toning up and regulating the kidneys. Being in need of such a remedy I went to H. P. Dunn & Co.'s drug store and got a box of Doan's Kidney Pills. From the prompt results received through their use I am thoroughly convinced that Doan's Kidney Pills are all that they are claimed to be."

Sold for 50 cents a box by H. P. Dunn & Co., and all druggists. Foster Milburn Co., Buffalo, N. Y., sole agents for the U. S.

Remember the name—Doan's—and take no substitute.
